TO RECENT PROTESTIn Letter to Leaders of Opposition He Charges
Some of Them With Violation of Pledge of Loyalty.

Mayor Dickmann this afternoon renewed his war on members of the Democratic City Committee and the Board of Aldermen who are hostile to his administration, by ordering the dismissal of 20 city employees appointed on recommendation of the committee members or Aldermen.

Six of those fired were from the Fourth Ward. Jimmy Miller's wife and one of them, John Kuber, discharged from a job in the City Marshal's office, is known as Miller's chauffeur.

The dismissals, following the removal of seven persons, five of them committee members, last week, constituted the Mayor's practical reply to the letter sent to him yesterday by 17 Aldermen, unfriendly to his administration, protesting against further dismissals of employees for alleged disloyalty.

Earlier in the day, the Mayor sent a formal letter to the 17 Aldermen, and to the clerk of the Board of Aldermen. He charged some of them with violating campaign pledges of loyalty to his administration, and told them that if their attitude made further dismissals necessary, they and not he would be to blame.

List of Those to Be Fired.

Those whose dismissals the Mayor announced this afternoon were:

Leo F. Giblin, guard, City Jail appointed from Fourth Ward.

John Mallon, same position, same ward.

Robert A. Joern, same.

Casimir Gromacki, 1543 North Eighth street, guard at Workhouse; appointed from Fourth Ward.

William J. Getty, foreman Workhouse, Fourth Ward.

John Kuber, deputy City Marshal, Fourth Ward, known as chauffeur for Justice Jimmy Miller, committee member.

Thomas W. Dempsey, deputy Marshal, Fourth Ward.

Mary O'Connor, 3327 Henrietta street, St. Louis, seamstress City Hospital.

Albert Conchman, Market Master, South Market, appointed on recommendation of J. J. Fitzsimmons, Eighth Ward committeeman.

F. R. Tillman, 2807 Kenoska street, Fourth Ward, clerk special tax division.

Manley, carpenter, Koch Hospital, appointed from Seventh Ward.

Charles Heinick, attendant, Training School for Feeble Minded, 1001 O'Shaughnessy, payroll City Hospital.

William A. H. Steinman, 5715 Southwest avenue, physician in city mental disease clinic, uncle of John P. English, new anti-Dickmann chairman of city committee.

William Gray, foreman, Water Department, brother of George Gray, Second Ward committeeman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wheat, steward and attendant at City Sanitarium, he at $130 a month and board, she at $80.

The Mayor said he understood the last two had made utterances of disloyalty to his administration.

Text of Letter.

The Mayor's letter, in part, says: "Following the April election, at which the candidates for your board ran upon a platform containing an express and an emphatic pledge of co-operation in carrying out our policies, I had every confidence that we could go forward and working together, make a record as would reflect credit upon all of us and upon our party, and render the highest order of service to the people. You can, therefore, readily understand my disappointment when you gentlemen saw fit to set out upon a course with the manifest and, in my opinion, the express purpose of embarrassing the administration, even

BILL IN CONGRESS TO RE-ENACT
GASOLINE TAX, 3-CENT POSTAGETwo-Year Extension of Levies Was Requested by Roosevelt in Budget Message—Second Measure to Correct Defects.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—At the president's request, House Democratic leaders started a $475,000,000 tax bill on its way through Congress today and said another probably would follow.

The first was requested in President Roosevelt's budget message at the opening of the session. It is a resolution extending for two years a number of taxes, among them the 3-cent postage and the 1-cent-a-gallon Federal gasoline tax.

The second, said Chairman Samuel B. Hill (Dem.), Washington, of the House Ways and Means Tax Subcommittee, would be drawn to remedy defects in existing tax laws and to adjust present rates found to be unreasonable or unproductive.

All of the $475,000,000 in taxes would go out of existence on or before July 31 if Congress did not extend them. Most of them expire on June 30, and the plan is to rush through the extension resolution before then.

The taxes in the resolution—which leaders hope to put through the House early next week—fall into three classes. Postage, "nuisance" taxes and import duties. The 1-cent increase above normal 2-cent postage would bring in around $75,000,000 for the fiscal year ending June 30; the nuisance taxes about $389,000,000 and the import duties about $11,000,000.

HOLDING COMPANY BILL NOT VALID, DEMOCRAT SAYS

Pettengill, in Statement, Declares Measure Passed by Senate Won't Stand Court Test.

HE IS AUTHOR OF SUBSTITUTE FOR IT

Would Tax Such Companies Out of Existence—House Subcommittee Deadlocked.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The bill for the abolition of utility holding companies considered "unnecessary" today by Representative Pettengill (Dem.), Indiana, a member of the House Interstate Commerce Subcommittee considering the measure. The bill was passed yesterday by the Senate, 56 to 32, after President Roosevelt had intervened to prevent the adoption of amendments that would have made it merely a regulatory measure.

An identical bill has been held in the House Subcommittee for two months by a deadlock of its six members, three of whom are reported to favor it and three to oppose it. Pettengill is author of a substitute plan to tax the holding companies out of existence.

He issued his statement after Senator Tydings (Dem.), Maryland, had expressed the opinion that the Borah amendment prescribing death to any utility holding company beyond the second degree would "defeat the purposes of the legislation."

"If the Senate bill becomes law it will receive another devastating rebuke from the Supreme Court," Pettengill said. "As one interested in the prestige and major objectives of the party in power I do not want that to happen."

Emphasizing his belief a utilities bill should be passed to correct the abuses in the utility field, Pettengill added: "The death sentence in the Senate bill is unnecessary. It is unconstitutional. It is destructive of recovery. It will freeze uncertainty."

Yesterday's Debate. Such words as "fraud," "chicanery," "blood suckers" and "thieves" sprinkled the debate in the Senate yesterday.

Senator Wheeler (Dem.), Montana, who had asserted that the bill would restore public confidence shaken by such events as the Insull utility collapse, said of the vote: "I think this means the end of the holding company system generally. Sentiment against holding companies is building up. This serves notice that the people are not going to stand for the practices."

Wheeler, co-author of the legislation with Rayburn, expressed belief that the Senate vote would improve the bill's chances in the House. A House sub-committee has been divided, three and three, between abolition and mere regulation.

Dietrich Amendment Beaten. By the margin of one vote, the Senate yesterday turned down an amendment by Senator Dietrich (Dem.), Illinois, to eliminate provisions empowering the Securities Commission to dissolve or reorganize companies it found contrary to "public policy." This was after Wheeler had read a pencilled memorandum from President Roosevelt opposing such a change.

Senator Borah (Rep.), Idaho, succeeded in amending the bill to make it more drastic. His amendment, designed to prevent pyramiding of holding companies, provides that no more than one holding firm could be imposed on an operating concern.

Senator Clark (Dem.), Missouri, also succeeded in getting the Senate to alter the definition of a gas utility. He said the change would bring the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey and Mellon gas interests under the bill.

The Wheeler-Rayburn bill provides: "By 1942 utility holding companies must be dissolved except that one only may be permitted by the Securities Commission where necessary to the operation of each regionally integrated operating system. Interstate marketing of securities is subject to regulation by the Commission."

Holding companies confined wholly or predominantly in one state are exempt. All utility holding companies doing an interstate business must register by Sept. 1, 1938.

Beginning on Jan. 1, 1938, dissolution of holding companies or reorganization on a regional basis must begin.

No holding company may control properties outside its own region, save with minor exceptions. Two or more regional systems may co-operate in supporting a mutual non-profit service and engineering company.

All privately operated companies whose principal business is serving or supplying utility companies must register with the Commission.

The Commission may act as receiver for any company in process of reorganization under court direction, and must be consulted by

CANADA PLANNING TO PROTECT MONEY WITH EXCHANGE FUND

Minister of Finance Announces Intention to Introduce Bill in House of Commons.

OTTAWA, June 12.—Notice was given yesterday by Edgar N. Rhodes, Minister of Finance, of his intention to introduce a bill in the House of Commons respecting "the establishment of an exchange fund."

Details of the measure will not be made public until it is tabled in the House.

It is understood the Government's intention is to set aside a fund in excess of $30,000,000 which will be available for the purchase of foreign exchange gold or credits abroad, particularly in London and New York. This may be used when necessary to protect the value of Canadian money in other countries with which the Dominion trades.

USE OF MACHINERY ON FARMS LIMITED BY DECREE IN SPAIN

Mechanical Devices May Not Be Utilized for More Than Half of Labor

MADRID, June 12.—As a step toward relieving farm unemployment, the Ministry of Labor issued a decree today forbidding the use of machinery for more than 50 per cent of the labor on any farm. Land owners may be subjected to heavy fines for supplying more than half the manual labor with machinery.

At Seville, the Andalusian harvesters and land owners signed an agreement by which a minimum of five pesetas (about 70 cents) will be paid for an eight-hour day and by which no women or children under 16 years old shall engage in the harvest.

OFFICIAL DENIES POSTAL PRESSURE ON CRITIC OF AAA

C. A. Eilenberger Declares Threat to Bar Georgia Bulletin as Second Class Mail Is Justified.

Post-Dispatch Bureau, 201-205 Kellogg Bldg.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Clinton B. Eilenberger, Third Assistant Postmaster-General, today defended his order threatening to bar from the mails the Georgia State Market Bulletin for publishing political and "controversial" articles. This was a routine procedure, he said. He was compelled to take action under the law granting second-class mailing privilege to state marketing bulletins, he added.

It was the first time, however, since privilege was granted to this type of publication in 1900 that such action had been taken. Eilenberger admitted. It has been charged that his action is an attempt at censorship of unfavorable political comment.

Tom Linder, Commissioner of Agriculture in Georgia and editor of the Bulletin, has published articles denouncing the agricultural policy of the Administration in violent terms. The last issue, that of June 6, quoted a news story from Des Moines, Ia., which stated that a seed corn company, owned in part by Secretary of Agriculture Wallace or members of his family, would make a large profit through expanding the acreage in corn production.

"The processing tax on corn paid by Georgia farmers," said this article, signed by Linder, "goes to Iowa. It does not come back to Georgia."

Letter Withheld. Eilenberger refused to make public the letter he sent to Postmaster Lon Livingston in Atlanta, setting June 20 as the deadline for Linder to conform with the ruling of the Postoffice Department. According to Eilenberger, this letter stated that action would of necessity be taken because the Georgia State Market Bulletin "does not conform to the requirements."

The clause in the postal laws covering State bulletins as quoted by Eilenberger is as follows: "All periodical publications issued from a known place of publication at stated intervals as frequently as four times a year by the State Department of Agriculture shall be admitted to the mail as second-class matter. Provided, that such matter shall be published only for the purpose of furthering the objects of such departments; and provided further, that said publications shall not contain any advertising matter of any kind."

It was under the first provision of this clause, "that such matter shall be published only for the purpose of furthering the objects of such departments," that the Georgia Bulletin was ruled out, Eilenberger said.

Postal Officials' Statement. "The Georgia State statutes make clear that we are entirely in the right on this," Eilenberger said. "The statute creating the market bulletin provides that no warrant will be issued by the State Treasurer to defray the costs if it is found, and I quote the statute, to be 'publishing any matter, whether editorially or otherwise, save and except strictly advertisements for sale or exchange.' These are free advertisements which farmers of the State may insert merely by writing to the State Commissioner of Agriculture. Except for the articles objected to by Eilenberger, each issue of the bulletin is made up of columns of such free advertisements."

Japanese Ship Arrives at Tientsin With Troops for Tientsin.

SHANGHAI, June 12.—A Japanese transport arrived today at Tientsin crowded with troops for the Tientsin garrison. The additional soldiers will double the strength of the Japanese garrison here.

The debarkation of the first Japanese reinforcements coincided with the concentration of the Kwangtung army along the great wall, a move which the Japanese termed "precautionary."

The danger of such incidents lies in the continuous movement of both Chinese and Japanese troops through the Tientsin area, which brings the two forces in close contact in many places.

HUEY LONG BARS ACTION ON NRA WITH FILIBUSTER

"They're cookin' it up again to see if it won't taste better. It reminds me of boardin' house hash."

In the face of Senate opposition to the House measure which would have continued the provision relaxing the anti-trust laws for voluntary trade practice agreements, the administration forces had agreed to an amendment restoring the anti-monopoly statutes to what they termed "full force and vigor."

The amendment they offered would permit relaxation of the anti-trust laws only for agreements covering labor conditions and unfair trade practices already prohibited by law.

Chairman Harrison of the Finance Committee, who is handling the NRA legislation for the administration, said: "The friends of the administration are going to stick here on this fight regardless of any filibuster."

By the Associated Press. WEST PLAINS, Mo., June 12.—Joe "Luck" Braden pleaded guilty this afternoon to a first degree murder charge in connection with the insurance murder of Oscar Bushart near Alton, Mo., last July.

Braden entered his plea as he and R. E. Edwards, step-father of Bushart and alleged instigator of the death plot, were called for trial here on a charge of venue from Oregon County. Judge M. H. D. ## PEARL BUCK WEDS DAY OF DIVORCE

Ex-Wife of New Husband Sees Pair Off on Honey-moon.

By the Associated Press.

RENO, Nevada, June 12.—Pearl Buck, the novelist, was honeymooning today after a double quick Reno marital shift which made her the bride of Richard J. Walsh, New York publisher.

They left Reno by automobile immediately after last night's marriage ceremony, which was performed almost before the ink was dry on divorce decrees freeing them from former mates.

Mrs. Ruth A. Walsh, who divorced the publisher while Mrs. Buck was obtaining legal severance from John L. Buck, witnessed the marriage and sped the newlyweds on their way with best wishes.

The honeymoon highway was presumably led to California by the exact destination was not known and the couple did not disclose their plans for the future.

Mrs. Walsh, who had lived at a Lake Tahoe cottage with Mrs. Buck for six weeks while they were establishing Nevada residences for their divorces, planned to leave for New York by train today.

Both women charged their husbands, to whom they had been married for years, with cruelty and appeared to support their complaints at private court hearings which required less than 10 minutes. Property rights and custody of children were settled through agreements, the terms of which were kept secret.

The novelist, whose books are based on her experiences and observations while serving as a missionary in China, married her first husband in La Grangeville, N. Y., in 1917. They have two children, Carol, 15, and Janice, 10.

Walsh and his former wife, who were married in 1908, have a son and two daughters.

The pair are partners in a company which recently published the novelist's trilogy, "House of Earth," which severed her missionary connections in 1933 because of a Presbyterian Church controversy over her views.

Professor R. C. Thompson, dean of men at the University of Nevada, and an ordained Baptist minister, performed the marriage ceremony at the home of the Rev. Brewster Adams of the Reno Baptist Church, who was absent from the city.

40-HOUR WEEK PRINCIPLE APPROVED AT GENEVA SESSION

Labor Conference Votes 57 to 49 in Favor of Adopting General Convention.

By the Associated Press. GENEVA, June 12.—The International Labor Conference voted 57 to 49 today in approval of a resolution advanced by labor delegates that a general convention should be adopted based on the principle of a 40-hour work week for labor with a maintenance of the standard of living.

Asked how many of the 25,000 weekly copies of the paper would be circulated if denied one and one-half cent a pound mailing privileges in the future, Linder said the Federal Government was "too big to do a little thing."

The Postoffice Department has delivered to Linder an ultimatum to conform the bulletin to postal regulations, or lower rate mailing rights would be revoked. If classed as a political or editorial publication, the paper would cost about $425 weekly, instead of $50 to mail.

hiding near Butte.

Taken down the back stairs of the Federal Building, Mr. and Mrs.
Harmon M. Waley, confessed kidnapers, were placed in an airplane bound for Tacoma this afternoon.
Employees of the Federal Building said the Waleys were handcuffed together and accompanied by several Federal agents.
More than half of the $200,000 ransom had been recovered today, with the finding by Justice Department agents of $90,700 cached beneath an anthill in a rugged, brush-strewn canyon near here. It was the Waley who reportedly disclosed the hiding place of their share of the money.

Activities of the Government agents in uncovering the hidden money were related by Mr. and Mrs. S. Andrew Jackson, residents of a nearby summer cottage. They said they saw a man and a woman in the company of Federal agents go to the spot at 1:30 a. m. yesterday and that the cache was found in the aid of automobile headlights and flashlights.

Where Ransom Money Was Found

In this one-foot hole hidden by dense underbrush of Emigration Canyon, nine miles from heart of Salt Lake City, $90,700 of $200,000 Weyerhaeuser ransom was recovered after Harmon Waley and wife confessed implication in kidnaping.

Mayor Fires 20 More In Reprisal on Enemies

going so far as to take away from the newly elected President of your board the powers that rightfully belong to him.
"It brought little satisfaction to those of us, who are trying to keep faith with the people, to have some of your number freely explain that your action was not of your own choosing, but at the instigation of certain members of the Democratic City Committee. This made it clear that there were forces at work determined, for reasons known to them, to cripple and embarrass this administration. When these gentlemen pursued their course further and removed the chairman of the Democratic City Committee, not because of any objections to him personally, but solely because he was charged with being too friendly to me and my administration, then it became clear to everyone that I was forced to take drastic steps to prevent them from deriding our administration.

"If, as certain of you, number explained, you were moved to a course designed to embarrass the administration because of the demands made upon you by these committees, what may I expect of other officials and employees affiliated with these gentlemen?
"You express great concern for the welfare of employees, particularly from your words, May I suggest to you, in all kindness, but in all firmness, that you have it in your power to make an end of all anxiety by extending to the administration the co-operation you promised to give and encouraging co-operation on the part of those affiliated with you? When you, who have signed this letter, reach the conclusion you are willing to co-operate with my administration, I shall be glad to consider any proposal you may make. Meanwhile, I shall continue my efforts to fill all positions with men and women who are willing and able to co-operate with us in rendering the kind of service to which the people of this city are entitled."

Ward Organizations.
The appointment of persons to supervise patronage and exercise all the functions of a City Committee members in wards where the members of the committee are unfriendly to Mayor Dickmann is being considered by the Mayor and his political advisers.
The persons appointed would probably be city employees or members of Democratic war veterans' organizations whose loyalty to the administration could be depended upon and who would become the administration candidates for the various committee posts in August, 1935. In wards where the present committee is friendly to the Mayor and the committee would be appointed, a woman would be appointed, and vice versa.

May Stop Contributions.
Some of the Mayor's advisers believe that this would be an effective way of building up the administration organization in each ward and would deal a telling blow to the anti-administration committee members. The Mayor is also considering requesting city employees to discontinue contributions to ward organizations in the anti-Dickmann wards. These contributions usually amount to 1 per cent a month of each employee's salary and are used chiefly to pay ward organization expenses in election campaigns.

The "unofficial" committee members selected by the Mayor and his advisers would not ask for contributions from the city employees in their wards, but would depend on voluntary contributions and proceeds of dances and other entertainments of the ward clubs for funds.

The vote to unseat Hannegan was 22 to 23, which means that nearly two-thirds of the 56 committee members voted against the Mayor. Most of the anti-Dickmann committee members feel that the Mayor and Hannegan, as committee chairman, did not show sufficient consideration for the committee recommendations for jobs. Some committee members also feel that the Mayor has made too many appointments of personal friends to office instead of party workers of many years' standing.

The majority group in the Board of Aldermen has shown its hostility to the Mayor by placing the power of appointing committees in the hands of Vice-President Bernard J.
Fitzsimmons, brother of Committeeman James J. Fitzsimmons, who is opposed to the Mayor, instead of President Mason, who was elected with the Mayor's backing.

ON TRIAL FOR KILLING WOMAN WHO WED HER EX-HUSBAND

Defendant Accused of Shooting Successor to Death in Theater Lobby at Stanford, Ky.
STANFORD, Ky., June 12.—A lumber dealer's former wife who shot her successor to death in a movie lobby went on trial on murder charges here today. The defendant, Mrs. Eva Cooper Wilson, 35, killed Mrs. Marie Dutton Wilson, 35, as she came out of a Somerset (Ky.) theater with her husband
Feb. 24.
Seventy-six witnesses have been summoned. The husband, Truesdale Wilson, head of a lumber and stave business, said the killing was nothing more than wilfully carrying through an original intention in an insane and disordered mind.
The shooting was the second by Mrs. Eva Wilson. She shot Mrs.
Marie Wilson on a Somerset street in 1931. Mrs. Eva Wilson's divorce was then pending. She named Mrs.
Marie Wilson a co-respondent. She was indicted on charges of malicious shooting, but the charges were dropped at the victim's behest.

They were married in Tijuana, after the ceremony, and informed her husband by telephone Monday

MERAMEC FLOOD PASSES ITS CREST, BEGINS TO RECEDE

Missouri and Mississippi Rivers Continue to Ebb in Vicinity of St. Charles and St. Louis.

The flooded Missouri and Mississippi rivers continued to fall today, and the Meramec, after reaching its crest at Valley Park this morning, receded slightly. With fair weather anticipated, further falls were expected during the next few days.
The gauge at St. Charles this morning showed the Missouri was at a stage of 34.3 feet, a fall of 3 of a foot since yesterday. At St.
Louis the Mississippi's stage was 32.3 feet, a fall of 4 of a foot.
The Meramec, rising rapidly during the past few days because of local rains, was at a stage of 18.5 feet at Valley Park this morning at 6 o'clock, but had fallen 1 of a foot in the next hour. Flood stage is 14 feet, but the river was within its banks in most places and there was no great damage or inconvenience.

Rains of the past few days caused a rise in the Missouri at Kansas City which reached a crest of 21.8 feet last night, compared with last week's crest of 23.9 feet.
After 11 o'clock last night the river began to fall and this morning the gauge was at 21.6 feet.
From Lexington to Waverly the Missouri was expected to rise about 1 foot in the next 24 hours, but from Booneville to St. Charles a fall ranging from 5 of a foot to 1 foot was expected during the next few days. The Osage River was up this morning, serving to check the fall of the Missouri at Hermann and below.

St. Charles road (United States Highway No. 40), which has been closed since last Thursday in St.
Louis County opposite St. Charles, because of the Missouri River flood, was reopened to restricted passenger traffic at noon today. Division Engineer Daniels of the State Highway Department, urged that no use of the road be made which would be dangerous, because of the prospect of congestion.
Truck traffic was barred. A one-way rule was enforced in the expectation that no more than 40 to 50 automobiles could get through easily. It was necessary to go through 10 inches of water for about a mile and to run over an abandoned trolley right-of-way east of the bridge. Daniels warned that use of the route would be at the motorist's risk.

LAWYER LASKA'S WITNESS BARRED FROM COURTROOM

Woman Excluded During Others' Testimony on Urschel Kidnaping Conspiracy Charge.

By the Associated Press.
OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., June 12.—
Ben B. Laska's "surprise" witness, Mrs. Molly Edison of Denver, Colo., was excluded today from his Federal trial on charge of receiving $10,000 of the $200,000 Charles F.
Urschel ransom for defending Albert Bates, convicted Urschel kidnaper.
District Attorney W. C. Lewis asked that Mrs. Edison, young attorney, be requested to leave the courtroom during taking of testimony. Lewis' request was granted by Judge Edgar S. Vaughn.
Mrs. Clara Feldman testified today Laska threatened her with death unless she carried out his instructions in the disposal of her convicted husband's share of the $200,000 Charles F. Urschel ransom.

On Cross-Examination.
Mrs. Feldman, whose honeymoon with Albert Bates, the convicted kidnaper, was cut short by his arrest, was the first witness the Government has introduced to show the entry of Laska into the alleged kidnaping conspiracy.
She made the accusation on cross-examination by Laska, whose theoretical courtroom demeanor drew reprimand from Judge Vaughn several times during the examination. Laska, Denver attorney, is defending himself.

Leading up to the question after he drew from the witness details of his alleged part in the concealment of Bates' $75,000 share in the Urschel ransom, Laska suddenly shouted:
"I didn't say to you that I'd cut out your throat, as the Government has tried to show, did I?" "Yes, you did," Mrs. Feldman replied. "You said to me that if I didn't take your instructions you'd have my throat cut."
"You took my instructions when you went to Chicago, didn't you?"
Laska asked. He referred to a trip made to that city by Mrs. Feldman and her son, Edward, to which she previously had testified on direct examination. "Yes," Mrs. Feldman replied.

Her Reply Is "No."
"You took my instructions in going to Oregon, too, didn't you?"
Laska continued, referring to another trip Mrs. Feldman said she made while seeking to avoid apprehension with the ransom cash.
"No," she returned.
"What," Laska shouted, rising to his tiptoes and waving his arms,
"you mean to tell me you didn't take instructions when you went to Oregon?" "No," came the answer.
"And yet you were in terror of your life. You were afraid of me!"
He continued: "Yes, I was afraid," was her reply.
"How many times had you seen me?" Laska queried. "Once, when I went to your home in Denver."
"And yet, after seeing me once, you became so impressed with my

TOWER GROVE PARK FUNDS CUT, ACTIVITIES REDUCED

Tennis Courts Closed, Time Limit Put on Use of Playground Equipment.
Because of a decrease of $50,000 in the city appropriation for Tower Grove Park this year, the 12 tennis courts in the park will be closed, playground equipment will be used only from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m.
daily and the wading pools will be open only two or three days a week, James Gurney, park superintendent, said today.
The city budget provides $25,000 for upkeep of the park. Gurney said he could not hire enough attendants on that amount.

PROBATE CLERK HAD TO QUIT

Head of Office Since 1930; Successor Is Frank E. Morris.
Fred H. Hald, Clerk of the Probate Court since 1930 and an employee of the office for 22 years, will retire Saturday. His successor, Frank E. Morris, an attorney, was named recently by Probate Judge Glendy B. Arnold, who took office last January.
Hald offered his resignation soon after the change in administration, but agreed to stay several months until his successor became familiar with his duties. The salary of the Clerk is $5,000 a year. Hald resides at 5738 Enright avenue.
"I don't say you lived in terror of me for months," Laska went on, his voice raising.
At that point, Judge Vaughn admonished Laska to "ask your questions in the proper way and eliminate unnecessary emphasis." Laska bowed low.

James C. Mathers, Oklahoma City attorney, is on trial with Laska on kidnap conspiracy charges, the Government alleging they accepted as fees part of the $200,000 ransom paid in 1933 for the wealthy oil man's release.
The first witness today was H. L.
Reno, Denver jailer, who was questioned about alleged notes passed by a trustee between Bates and Laska.
Mrs. Edison, who has offices just above Laska's suite in a Denver building, is expected to testify she witnessed the payment of money by Edward Feldman, Bates' stepson, to Laska as a fee and that no mention of ransom was made.

JAMES H. SCOTT, 63 YEARS IN EMPLOY OF CITY, DIES

He Had Been Continuously in Public Service Since He Was 16 Years Old

James Horace Scott, 63 years old, who on July 5 would have celebrated 64 years of continuous service for the city, died yesterday at his home, 6180 Pershing avenue, after an illness of six weeks. He held the record for length of service on the city's payroll.

Starting at the age of 16 as a field hand in a crew of surveyors, Mr. Scott later became superintendent of construction for the Board of Public Improvements, now the Board of Public Service. He served under 14 Mayors, beginning with Mayor Joseph Brown in 1871. Recently he had been a clerk in the office of the president of the Board of Public Service. His birthday—Sept. 14—and service anniversaries had been observed for years by office associates, who presented gifts.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Cora A. Scott; a son, Morton O. Scott, Butte, Mont., and a daughter, Miss Helen Scott, of the Pershing avenue address.

TOBACCO, TURPENTINE ADDED TO PROPOSED NEW AAA BILL

Marketing "Order" Plan Not Expected to Reach House Floor Before Next Week.

WASHINGTON, June 12. — Tobacco and turpentine were added by the House Agriculture Committee yesterday to the marketing agreement section of the amendment bill pressed by the administration to guard the farm adjustment law from constitutional challenges.

The draft written by AAA officials already listed milk, fruits and vegetables as the commodities on which the Secretary of Agriculture may issue "orders" for marketing agreements in place of the old "licenses" discarded when the court held NRA unconstitutional.

In addition to adding the two commodities, the committee tentatively agreed to exclude from the marketing agreement section vegetables for canning purposes.

The bill was not expected to reach the House floor before next week.

MISSING TOURISTS SOUGHT ON DESERT

Illinois Pairs Traced to Socorro, N. M.—Believed to Have Been Killed.

The search for the missing George M. Lorus party of tourists was concentrated today in the desert area about Socorro, N. M. Investigators learned yesterday that the tourists had been in Socorro May 23, and that later that same day their automobile, driven by a young man who was alone, stopped at a filling station 44 miles south of Socorro.

Previously investigators had not been able to trace the movements of Mr. and Mrs. Lorus and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heberer beyond Albuquerque, where they were on May 22. Working back along the other avenue of inquiry, from Dallas, where the Lorus automobile was abandoned May 28, they had been able to trace the route of the automobile only from El Paso. The young man who drove it cashed at least 16 forged $10 travelers' checks issued to Lorus as he went from El Paso to Dallas.

Cards From Albuquerque.
From Albuquerque the motorists had mailed postcards to friends in East St. Louis and Du Quoin, telling of an intention to visit El Paso and Mexico, just across the Rio Grande. Socorro is about 80 miles south of Albuquerque, on the road to El Paso, about 100 miles beyond Socorro.

Pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Lorus and of Mr. and Mrs. Heberer were identified by the manager of the Socorro Grill as those of a party of tourists who had lunch at the grill on May 23.

New Mexico state police, led by Chief E. J. House Jr., are directing the search in the Socorro area. The officers were said to have abandoned hope that the tourists would be found alive.

Mother in East St. Louis.
Lorus' mother, Mrs. Tinka Lorus, who is 89 years old, returned yesterday to East St. Louis to join other members of the family in awaiting word from her missing son. She was in Memphis, visiting a daughter, when friends and relatives first began to fear for the safety of the tourists. In East St. Louis Mrs. Lorus resides with another daughter, Mrs. Herman Rohwedder, 726 North Thirty-second street.

Lorus is in the coal business in East St. Louis, and Heberer is the owner of a barber shop at Du Quoin. With their wives they set out from East St. Louis May 19 intending to drive to California.

FAMILY GIVES UP YOUTH WHO FLED FROM REFORMATORY

Harry Effan, St. Louis, Says He and Companion Drove Prison Auto to Southwest.

Harry Effan, who escaped from the Alcoa Intermediate Reformatory May 15, was turned over to police last night by his brother, Elmer Effan, 2837 South Eighth street.

Effan told police that he and another prisoner stole a prison automobile and drove until the fuel was exhausted. They rode freight trains into Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico, where he separated from his companion. Returning to St. Louis yesterday, there was a family consultation, and he agreed to accompany his brother to police headquarters.

He was sentenced to a five-year term in April, 1934, for robbery.

SUIT OVER 625 SHARES OF BREWERY STOCK

Mrs. Suhre Seeking to Recover Former Holdings From August Busch Estate.The suit of Mrs. Lily Anheuser Suhre, 3131 Russell boulevard, against the estate of August A.
Busch, to recover 625 shares of the stock of Anheuser-Busch, Inc., with a present market value of more than $54,000, was heard today in Circuit Judge O'Malley's court.Mrs. Suhre has another suit pending against the Busch estate, relating to another block of stock of the brewing company, which she had sold to August A. Busch, a relative, in the prohibition period, but claimed the right to buy back later.
This suit has been heard by Judge Ryan, who has not rendered a decision.In the suit now on trial, Mrs.
Suhre alleges that the 625 shares were deposited by her with Mark
C. Steinberg, broker, to cover margins on trading accounts, and thus, in July, 1929, came into Steinberg's possession. She charges that Aug.
22, 1930, Busch, through W. Fred Anheuser, his agent, and vice-president of the brewing company, applied to Steinberg to sell him the stock.The petition charges that Anheuser told Steinberg he was acting in the interest of and in behalf of Mrs. Suhre, and that on this representation, Steinberg sold him the stock. She alleges that the sale to Anheuser was for about $40,000, that she should have been permitted last July, under the understanding which existed, to buy the stock for $40,000 plus interest and minus dividends paid on the stock. This amount, $45,985, Mrs. Suhre alleges that she tendered to the Busch estate executors, who refused to sell her the stock.Steinberg, the first witness, testified that he sold the stock to Anheuser because of his interest in Mrs. Suhre, whose husband, William O. Suhre, formerly worked for Steinberg. He said Anheuser told him that he was acquiring the stock
"for Lily," which he understood to refer to Mrs. Suhre, An-heuser's cousin.Steinberg said he took the stock on a basis of $60 and sold it to Anheuser at $64. It is now worth $47.50 a share. Steinberg said he realized about the amount of his investment with interest and commissions.The Busch estate denies that Anheuser, in his dealings with Steinberg, was acting for August A.
Busch. Daniel N. Kirby, attorney for the estate, brought out that no mention of Busch's name appeared in the record of the transaction.
The estate also charges that Mrs.
Suhre knew the circumstances long before filing her suit last July, and could have filed it before the death of Busch, which occurred early in 1933.

NO TRUE BILL VOTED BY JURY IN SHOOTING OF TONY CIPRIANO

Severio Guccione Freed; Says He Shot Victim Because He Demanded Money.

A no-true bill was voted by the grand jury yesterday after an inquiry in the shooting of Tony Cipriano, former bootlegger, in front of 1530 Biddle street last April 29. Cipriano, while a patient at City Hospital, insisted he did not know who shot him, but his wife's uncle, Severio Guccione, surrendered to the Circuit Attorney several days later and admitted the shooting.

Cipriano was a witness at the grand jury.

Guccione, proprietor of a grocery at 1508 Biddle, was quoted by police as saying he shot Cipriano because of the latter's demands for money.

Cipriano, 28 years old, was shot in the back. He was a brother of the notorious gunman, Caesar Cipriano, who was murdered in the Sicilian-Cuckoo gang war of 1928.

SUDDENLY STRICKEN

RICHARD LAWRENCE DALY.

RICHARD L. DALY DIES; SCHOOL BOARD AUDITOR

Stricken in Office Building After Attending Meeting of Group.

Richard Lawrence Daly, auditor for the Board of Education for a quarter of a century, died suddenly in the board's office building, 911 Locust street, last night, following the monthly meeting of the board. Death apparently was due to a heart ailment from which he had suffered for more than a year. He was 54 years old, a bachelor, residing at 4319 Maryland avenue.

Maj. Daly—was an overseas artillery officer in the World War and later served in the reserve—attended the board meeting, at which associates supposed he had gone home afterward. At 9:15 p. m. a custodian found him dead in a lavatory adjoining the board's assembly room, on the same floor as his office. School executives were summoned and the body was taken to City Hospital.

No complaint had been made by Maj. Daly last night. He had been unable to attend some previous board meetings. Following a meeting about a year ago he collapsed in the assembly room from a heart attack, but was able to go home. Dr. Solon Cameron, president of the board, had been treating him for heart trouble and high blood pressure. Maj. Daly went to a hospital for treatment for about six weeks last autumn and later for about two weeks. Dr. Cameron expressed the opinion that myocarditis probably was the cause of death.

Became Auditor in 1910. Born in St. Louis, Maj. Daly became chief clerk of the board's auditing department as a young man, serving for seven years before he was made auditor in 1910. About the time he became auditor he entered the first night course in the St. Louis University School of Commerce and Finance, being graduated with the degree of Bachelor of Commercial Science in 1913. Later he was an instructor in this school at night for a time. Last November the board re-elected him unanimously for a seventh four-year term at $6750 a year. The position was established to provide a continuous check of school finances. The office does not handle funds.

Maj. Daly perfected a school accounting system, which was copied elsewhere. Obtaining a leave of absence about the time the United States entered the World War, he attended the first officers' training camp at Fort Riley, Kan. Then he was one of the first officers sent to France. Early in 1918 he went to the front as a First Lieutenant in the Twelfth Artillery, after he had gone through French and American artillery schools abroad, and acted as an instructor in his regiment.

War-time Career in France. He participated in the fighting around Chateau Thierry and in the Soissons offensive and was in the Verdun and Toul sectors. For some months he was an acting battery commander in the Twelfth. In September, 1918, he was sent back to this country as a Captain in a regiment being organized at Fort Ethan Allen, Vermont.

After the Armistice, in January, 1919, he returned to his old position as Auditor. Several months later he got a French Croix de Guerre for bravery in the Soissons offensive. The citation related that at Vierzy, July 21, 1918, he "displayed great courage and bravery by taking up the limbers under violent bombardment and by bringing a gun damaged by the enemy's fire toward the rear."

In his younger days he was known as an amateur player of soccer, handball and baseball. Surviving is a brother, James Leo Daly, a bookkeeper for the City Supply Commissioner, with whom he resided.

World Communion for Children. By the Associated Press. VATICAN CITY, June 12.—Pope Pius XI decreed today a worldwide communion of Roman Catholic children Aug. 15 to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the decree of Pope Pius X permitting children seven years old and over to make their first communion.

CULT KEEPS BODY OF WOMAN IN HOPE SHE WILL LIVE AGAIN

No Burial Since Feb. 11; Inquiry by Officers at Monticello, Utah.

By the Associated Press. MONTICELLO, Utah, June 12.—Members of a religious cult watched today for some signs of returning life in the body of Edith Marie Ogden, admitted to officers of San Juan County that the body, unburied since Feb. 11, was in a house and in fairly good condition. However, they refused to let them see it.

Sheriff's officers and health officials were advised by Grover A. Giles, Assistant Attorney-General, that while there is no law requiring burial, except for health and sanitation reasons, a body must be properly preserved. Acting on this opinion, authorities here indicated they would view the body to determine if it is a menace to health.

BARGE BREAKS AWAY FROM TOW, RECOVERED

Five Hours Lost on Kansas City Trip by 'Double Tripping' Accident.

By the Associated Press.
NAPOLEON, Mo., June 12.—A 300-foot barge broke from the towboat Roosevelt here today. Deckhands leaped to safety as the huge ropes snapped and sent the barge adrift. It was recovered with steel cables in a few minutes.

Encountering swift current, the Roosevelt's load was split to be hauled through the faster water in sections. This practice, known as "double tripping" is common in river transportation. The maneuver cost the expedition five hours' time, but the boat was still expected to arrive in Kansas City at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

By SPENCER R. McCULLOCH
Of the Post-Dispatch Staff.
LEXINGTON, Mo., June 12.—Nearing the end of its 392-mile journey with time to spare, the towboat Franklin D. Roosevelt left here this morning with the first cargo of freight to go up the Missouri in 17 years.

Adjusting her running time in order to arrive at Kansas City punctually at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when a big civic celebration has been arranged in commemoration of the resumption of commercial navigation on the river, the 160-foot towboat stayed here last night, the first long stop on the trip.

Arriving here shortly before midnight, the boat tied up two miles above the highway bridge. Hundreds of persons lined the bridge and congratulatory messages were dropped on the barges from the Lexington Chamber of Commerce and army engineers.

Slow Progress at First.
For the first few days after leaving St. Louis last Thursday, progress was slow, but after negotiating especially swift flood currents at St. Charles and Hermann, the boat and its three barges made better time, so that it was well ahead of schedule this morning. Fear of falling behind schedule prevented the boat from stopping at river communities prior to this point, although the river-mindedness of the residents of the Missouri River valley has been in evidence all along the voyage.

Not only have crowds turned out at various towns to see the tow pass, but banks of isolated farms have been lined with cheering groups. Signs of the receding flood have become apparent as the Roosevelt has forged slowly upstream. The main course of the river still remains high, but bottom lands are emerging from the water, an occasional herd of cattle is seen walking gingerly across mud-covered fields submerged a few days ago. One farmer was observed late yesterday wading waist-deep in a flooded field to retrieve a hog which was marooned on an islet near the main channel of the muddy river.

As the towboat passed up the river the distant spires of towns which once were river communities, left high and dry by sudden twists in the river channel, sometimes overnight, were observable. Such communities as Lisbon, Arrow Creek, Saline City, Brunswick, Wellington and Camden were on the river, but now are inland. Thanks to Government reclamation and dike construction work in the past decade, it is regarded as unlikely that other towns will be victims of the Big Muddy's eccentricities.

Transportation Optimized.
The entire story of transportation has been epitomized as the Roosevelt has breasted the flood-swollen river. Several times airplanes have passed swiftly overhead, once a fleet of oxen drawn barges, the river's edge, freight trains often roar past. On the scenic bluffs near the route of the gold seekers of 1849.

In this modern age, however, the Roosevelt inaugurates the resumption of regular freight service on the Missouri, a feat hitherto deemed unlikely of accomplishment by many river men. H. R. Odell, operating manager of the Federal Barge Lines, announced today the Roosevelt would return to St. Louis Saturday afternoon with a cargo and leave St. Louis June 20 with another cargo for Kansas City. Weekly service will be instituted as soon as the flood subsides, he said.

SIX SENTENCED ON LIQUOR CHARGES IN FEDERAL COURT

Those sentenced were: Nick Altmeier, 1017 Ann avenue, seven months in jail for possession of a still and untaxed alcohol; Le Roy Davis, 1728 Biddle street, and Howard Powell, 2810 Clark avenue, Negroes, six and four months, respectively, for possession of unstamped alcohol; Frank Alangi, 4305 Maffitt avenue, $500 for possession of liquor in unstamped bottles; Chester Smith, Negro, 4101 W. Kennerly avenue, 30 days in jail for possession of unstamped alcohol; and Joe Sabello, 30 days in jail and a fine of $100 on a plea of guilty of possession of a still at 8933 Jennings road, which he said he had just come to repair when Federal agents arrested him. Sabello said he was a tinner.

JOSEPH BLOCK DENIES DISBARMENT CHARGES

Lawyer Files Formal Answer to Complaint of 'Malpractice, Fraud, Deceit.'

Joseph Block, defendant in a disbarment suit set for trial tomorrow before Circuit Judge O'Malley, filed his answer to the petition today. The answer denied each of the allegations in the petition, and contended that the Grievance Committee of the St. Louis Bar Association, which filed the suit last January, lacked authority to prosecute it. Since last November, the answer said, that authority has resided in the Bar Disciplinary Committee for the Eighth Judicial Circuit, appointed by the Supreme Court.

The Grievance Committee, in its petition, charged Block in five counts with "malpractice, fraud, deceit and misdemeanor in his professional capacity in appropriating about $1400 due to clients."

Answering each count of the petition in particular Block contended that the matters of which complaint was made did not take into account credits to which he was entitled, or settlements he had made to the satisfaction of his clients before the suit was instituted.

LABOR BOARD MAN SPEAKS AT DRY GOODS CONVENTION

Says Government Control Is Inevitable, If Business Does Not Improve Employee Relations.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 12.—Henry I. McCarthy, director of the Tenth Regional Labor Board, said yesterday that if business did not awaken to its labor problems some form of Government regulation inevitably would be set up. He spoke at the National Retail Dry Goods convention.

"With the passing of the NRA we have a breathing spell," he said. "Will business stand inactive and refuse to face the inevitable, thereby again bringing some form of Government control or will it awaken to the fact that employee relations must be strengthened and regulated through co-operation?" D. N. Nelson, vice-president of Sears, Roebuck & Co. appealed to the merchants to refrain from price-cutting, and to avoid altering materially wage and working conditions of employees.

CONTRACTURE OF HAND
CURED BY OPERATION

Mayo Physician Tells of Treatment for Affliction of Workers.

By the Associated Press.
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 12.—Dupuytren's contracture, an affliction of manual laborers which turns their hands into distorted claws, can be relieved by a surgical operation in about 75 per cent of the cases, Dr. Henry W. Meyerding of the Mayo Clinic, Rochester, Minn., told the American Medical Association today.

The fingers of the sufferer stiffen and bend inward. The cause is a thickening of the connective tissues between the muscles of the palms. The trouble starts in one hand, frequently the right. In most cases it appears also in the other hand, resulting in complete crippling for ordinary occupations. Dr. Meyerding reported on a study of 448 hands so affected at the Mayo Clinic, involving 273 persons. Of them 45 per cent were farmers, mechanics and laborers. A few housewives and school teachers were among them. Men are more often afflicted than women. The operation on the thickened connective tissues is difficult and while not always completely successful, affords some relief in all but the worst cases.

Longevity by Dieting.

Diets which will grow men of greater stature, increased longevity and a "higher degree of cultural attainment" were forecast in the annual address last night of the president of the association, James S. Mc Lester, M. D., of Birmingham, Ala.

He said that possibly 20,000,000 Americans are now "living near or below the threshold of nutritive safety," through inability to obtain proper food.

Dr. Mc Lester cited the development of a virtual new species of man by diet alone. He traced the physical changes in alien peoples who grew taller and heavier after immigration to the United States or its possessions.

He emphasized that the changes were not only in size but in efficiency, cheerfulness, happiness and in athletic prowess. "It should be possible," he said, "to bring mankind to a higher level of physical development. In this respect the American people are not indifferent. Indeed, they are acutely food conscious and will eat anything that they are told is healthful."

Ear Disease Described.

An ear disease, which is felt in the eye and has in the past been mistaken for meningitis, was described at the scientific exhibition. The ailment was discovered by Samuel J. Kopetzky, M. D., Henry K. Taylor, M. D., and Ralph Almour, M. D., of the Beth Israel Hospital, New York City.

It is an infection of the petrous bone. This structure lies forward of the mastoid bone, and deeper inside the head. It underlies the interior of the ear and partly supports some of the organs of hearing. This bone is porous. The source of infection in its channels is assumed to be streptococci, which are carried there directly through the blood.

If this infection is not checked, it penetrates deeply into the ear, and finally from there directly into the brain. In the brain, it causes death by meningitis or inflammation of the brain linings. Once in the brain it is too late to save life. It can be stopped and cured by operation, but it was never operated on because its existence was unknown.

Dr. Kopetzky and his associates have identified its signs sufficiently to detect 32 cases with aid of X-rays. Of these they cured 26. Five others were caught too late and died of meningitis. One other died of brain abscess.

The symptoms of the ear disease include pain in the eyes, dizziness, facial palsy, irritability and listlessness.

LIQUOR DEALERS URGED TO OBEY LAW STRICTLY

Excise Commissioner Says Prohibition May Return if They Do Not.

Excise Commissioner Anderson, in a speech yesterday before members of the Licensed Retail Liquor Dealers' Association, asked them to co-operate in observing the liquor laws and warned them that repeated violation would mean ultimately a return to prohibition. "It is very short-sighted to consider obedience to the law only for an immediate gain," he said, and added that unless the dealers voluntarily complied with the law at all times it would "only lead to an inflamed public opinion against the sale of any liquor."

He told them that he would strictly enforce all the liquor ordinances and specifically mentioned those in regard to the closing hour, the barring of Sunday sales, prohibiting the sale of liquor to a minor, and prohibiting the sale to an intoxicated person. He asked the association to appoint a committee to appear before the Board of Aldermen to request the passage of two liquor bills now pending which would make city ordinances conform to the recently changed State laws. He said that unless the Board of Aldermen passed the ordinances before adjournment on June 21 he would be required to continue enforcing the present 12 o'clock closing law. The new State law permits bars to sell until 1:30 a. m.

Concerning the Sunday closing law, he said: "Some take the view that unless the taverns violate the law, the people will follow suit. I urge you to look farther than East St. Louis, for if you do not, you will learn to your sorrow that violation of the law will engender ill-feeling and resentment which will finally lead to the closing of all bars."

HEARING ON MOTION TO PARDON LUKE LEA

Attorney Argues for, Trial Judge Opposes Clemency for Former Senator.

By the Associated Press.
RALEIGH, N. C., June 12.—Oral argument on a petition for the pardon of Luke Lea, former Senator from Tennessee, now serving from six to 10 years in the penitentiary for bank law violations, was heard today by Edwin Gill, state parole commissioner.
 J. M. Broughton, Raleigh counsel for Lea, presented the argument, supported by letters from Gen. John J. Pershing, Speaker Joseph W. Byrns, Senators J. W. Bailey and Robert R. Reynolds and others. Judge M. V. Barnhill, the trial judge, opposed a pardon on the ground that Lea was "clearly guilty, not only as charged, but in many other instances." He criticized what he termed a "consistent and persistent effort to create a sympathetic public sentiment and to bring pressure to bear on the Governor" in Lea's behalf, adding that such activities were "wholly out of accord with my sense of proprieties."
 "Mr. Lea elected not to testify in his own behalf and thus subject himself to cross-examination," Judge Barnhill said. "As I recall, after his conviction, he applied for a rehearing on account of newly discovered evidence. Pending this petition, he had presented to members of the jury ex parte evidence and procured from them statements that if they had known 'inside facts' they would not have convicted. Now he appeals to you in an ex parte hearing to adjudge that he is not guilty and was unjustly convicted. During all these proceedings, he has refused to submit himself to cross-examination by representatives of the State. Never having made a full disclosure, I feel that he cannot now complain."
 Broughton said that exhibits he gave Solicitor Zeb V. Gill showed Luke Lea had no part in the transactions between Caldwell & Co., defunct financial house, and the Central Bank & Trust Co., which involved $300,000 in certificates of deposit, $100,000 in cashier's checks and $45,000 in tax anticipation notes. Lea was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the Central Bank & Trust Co. of Asheville on counts involving the securities. Broughton presented photostatic copies of records of Caldwell & Co., which he said were not available when Lea was tried as the firm was in the hands of Federal receivers. Reporting to show Lea had no part in the transactions.

G. O. P. DEAD, SAYS
 JAMES ROOSEVELT

"Grass Rooters" Looking for Body, He Asserts at Excelsior Springs Rally.

By the Associated Press.
EXCELSIOR SPRING, Mo., June 12.—James Roosevelt, son of the President, departed from a prepared address here yesterday to charge the Republican party was dead and the "grass roots" convention at Springfield, Ill., was looking for the body.
 "A root is a thing underground," he told his audience, gathered here for a State-wide rally of young Democrats. "They are trying to turn over the earth to find something, but the Republican party is dead and buried and they can only find the body."
 The President's eldest son, who is secretary of the National Young Democratic organization, referred to Arthur M. Hyde, Secretary of Agriculture in the Hoover Cabinet. "Dead men can not resurrect a dead party," Roosevelt said. "And I refer to Mr. Arthur M. Hyde of Missouri who claims he can not understand the administration's agricultural program. I need only point out that when the present administration wanted a Secretary of Agriculture it selected a man who lived his lifetime among the farmers of the West and not a man whose recommendation was the number of automobiles he could sell."
 "Hiding Under Constitution."
 "They are trying to resurrect themselves by hiding under the Constitution and are seeking to raise a false issue, a straw man which they may then blow down," Roosevelt continued.
 "In doing this they show they still are as muddleheaded as ever and I will give you a concrete example of it."
 "They cry that the administration is destroying State's rights, that it is centralizing power and yet they go to the shrine of Lincoln. Any party which will raise the state's rights issue at the shrine of Lincoln shows clearly that it is not thinking any more clearly than it did several years ago."
 "It is not fair to use the symbol of the great American Lincoln for any political party."
 His Prepared Address.
 In his prepared address Roosevelt urged that provision be made for earlier determination of the constitutionality of legislative proposals before their enactment. To this is added the burden of slow trial through the courts. Never has this particular oversight been so greatly regretted.
 "I, for one, would like to propose that provision be made in the immediate future for an earlier determination of the constitutionality of the acts of the National Legislature."
 Says President Seeks Advice.
 The President, he added, has obeyed the "opinion of the highest court," and has sought the advice of the people as to "ways and means of retaining the admitted gains of the past few years."
 "The issue is clear," he said. "Either we as a party solve these problems to the satisfaction of the people and maintain and go ahead with the great social purposes, which we can assure permanent prosperity for our people, regardless of occupation, or we drift back into the control of those whose training and heritage would return us to that stage which Abraham Lincoln so dramatically declared to be impossible—half slave and half free."
 Roosevelt said his father trained his children to form opinions and express them freely.
 "When I was a small boy my father sent me to work in a mill to see how men earn their living by labor," he said. "It was then he told me that no matter what position he ever held, it was his desire all of us form our own opinions and have the courage to express them freely; to stand on our own feet, regardless of his power or position."

JURY CONVICTS MAN, IMPOSES
 $50 FINE FOR DRUNKEN DRIVING
 Jess Wood Found Guilty, Although Another Man Said He Was at Wheel of Car.
 Jess Wood, 44-year-old sheet metal worker, was fined $50 and costs by a jury in Circuit Judge Williams' court yesterday for driving an automobile while intoxicated. Police officers testified they saw Wood on March 23 driving on a flat tire and zig-zagging over the street in the 3900 block on North Broadway.
 Wood denied the charge, declaring he was not driving the car at the time. Robert Long, 1808 Delmar avenue, assumed responsibility, saying he was the driver. He testified he left the automobile, taking the keys and leaving Wood seated in the car while he went to inquire for work in the vicinity. Wood lives at 4624 Newberry Terrace.

 Law Violators.

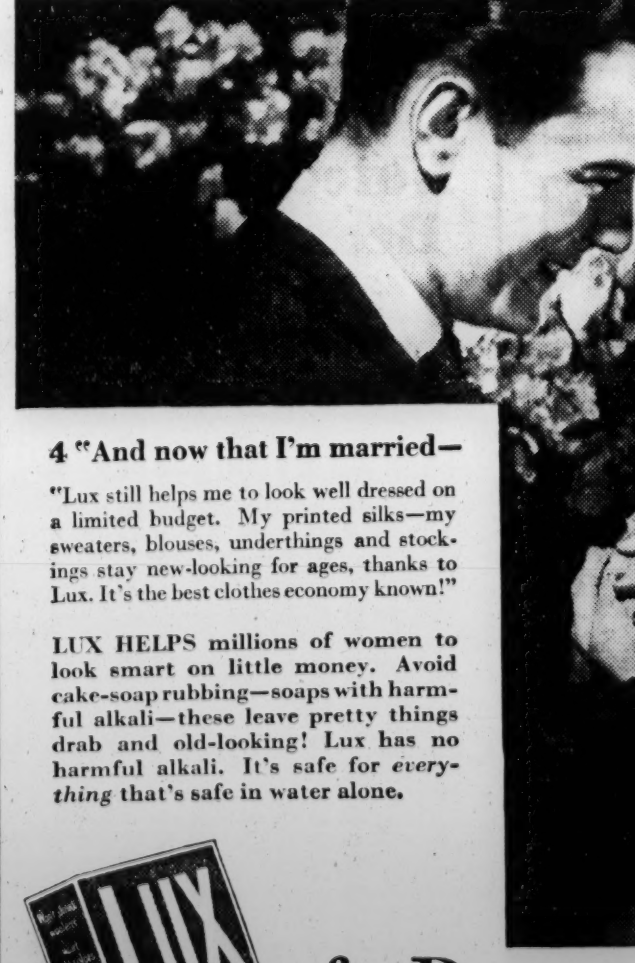

Eighteen visiting inspectors and special agents of the Alcohol Tax Unit, a bureau of the United States Internal Revenue Department, are in St. Louis for an inspection of retail liquor establishments. They are working with 11 men regularly stationed in St. Louis. J. F. Farley, district supervisor of the unit for Missouri, Kansas, Arkansas and Oklahoma, is in charge of the visiting group.
 Harry Dengler of the Intelligence Unit, Internal Revenue Department, who is with the group as an instructor, said one purpose of the inspection was to eliminate "cheaters," selling moonshine whiskey. Another purpose is to educate liquor dealers in the detailed requirements of the Federal liquor law, and to restore conditions of law observance which existed before national prohibition.

3 ACCUSED OF ILLEGAL PRACTICING OF LAW

Said to Have Appeared Without Authority Before Missouri Utility Board.

By the Associated Press.
JEFFERSON CITY, June 12.—Information setting out that P. H. Coon of St. Louis, J. Fred Hull of Maryville and Edwin S. Austin of Jefferson City had practiced law without authority before the Missouri Public Service Commission yesterday by the Advisory Committee to Boyle G. Clark of Columbia, general chairman of the Court's 38 Judicial Circuit Bar Disciplinary Committees.

The information asked that the three be restrained from practicing law without a license and that they be ordered to appear before the Court and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt. Instances in which they were alleged to have represented litigants before the commission were set forth in the information. Coon, it was said, had entered his appearance before the State body for the Missouri Pacific Railroad. Hull's Comment.

J. Fred Hull, former member of the commission, said at Maryville last night that he had not been informed previously of the Advisory Committee's action. "I did not know I had practiced law," he said, "but I cannot comment further until I have had time to study details of the charge." Hull, a Republican, resigned from the commission in December, 1933. Austin denied the committee's charge, acknowledging he had appeared several times before the commission but asserting he had not practiced law. He was formerly supervisor of the commission's Bus and Truck Department. Coon could not be reached.

Rules Amended Recently.
Rules of the Supreme Court regulating practice of law in Missouri as adopted last November were amended recently to enlarge authority of the general chairman of the Bar Committee and give to him specific authority to appoint an advisory committee of five members.

Members of the committee, who signed the information together with Clark, are Grover C. Shibley of St. Louis, James A. Parks of Clinton, J. C. Grover of Kansas City, Morris E. Osborn of Shelbyville and J. D. James of Joplin.

The information was filed by Don Purteet of Jefferson City and Victor C. Gladney of Columbia, attorney for the committee, with Attorney-General McKittrick and his assistant, Franklin E. Reagan, representing the committee and the State.

MANY WAIT 32 HOURS TO HEAR GRACE MOORE

Queen Mary Expected to Attend American Singer's Second London Appearance.

LONDON, June 12.—A line began forming at the gallery entrance of Covent Garden 32 hours before the opening of Grace Moore's second London appearance in "La Boheme" tonight, which Queen Mary is expected to attend. Today the line was a quarter of a mile long. All reserved seats have been sold.

The gallery crowd, mostly women, defied police attempts to enforce a regulation forbidding queues to form more than 15 hours before curtain time. Neither did rain nor a high wind break up the line. Under umbrellas the women read or knitted with damp, sticky yarn.

The American soprano's London debut was a triumph and her second appearance has drawn many persons from outside London.

SHOE MANUFACTURERS' GROUP AGREES ON HOURS AND WAGES

National Volume Association Also Drafts Provisions for Maintaining Prices.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 12.—The National Volume Shoe Manufacturers' Association drafted yesterday a voluntary agreement for maintaining prices in the industry and governing working conditions for 25,000 employees.

A policing body of 14 manufacturers was selected to enforce the agreement. Members of the committee said the agreement called for a 40-hour work week instead of the 30 to 36 hour week under NRA, and for the dropping of a $12 a week minimum wage requirement for apprentices. The pay for skilled labor will be the same as under NRA, they said.

California Border Patrol Bill Fails.
By the Associated Press.
SACRAMENTO, Cal., June 12.—The State Senate early today defeated the bill, previously passed by the Assembly, which would have provided a border patrol for California to end the influx of indigents which reached its height during the "End Poverty in California" campaign of Upton Sinclair.

GEORGE D. BASCOM DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

In Hospital Since Monday Night After Attack at Municipal Opera.

George D. Bascom, 4323 West Pine boulevard, son of the late W. S. Bascom Sr., general manager of the Broderick & Bascom Rope Co., died last night following an operation for stomach ulcers.

Mr. Bascom, 53 years old, was stricken last Saturday, but attended the Municipal Opera on Monday night. He left during the performance, and was taken to the hospital when his condition became grave.

Surviving are two sisters, the Misses Florence and Blanche Bascom, and a brother, William. Another brother, Frank H. Bascom, manager of Ben J. Selkirk & Sons, auctioneers, died a month ago of a blood malady.

Mr. Bascom was interested in sports, and years ago was catcher for the White Sox, one of St. Louis' leading semi-professional baseball teams. He was a salesman, but had not been active in business in recent years.

FAUST PAINT CO., TRUSTEE NAMED BY FIRM'S CREDITORS

Orville Livingston, manager of the adjustment bureau of the St. Louis Association of Credit men, was elected trustee of the bankrupt Faust Paint Co., 3625 Salena street, at a meeting of the firm's creditors yesterday in Bankruptcy Court. Referee Hope set his bond at $15,000.

A voluntary petition in bankruptcy was filed by the company May 15 in pursuance to a resolution of the board of directors, which said "it was agreed the company was solvent if permitted to go on but circumstances prevented this." The firm was previously in the hands of a Circuit Court receiver, who was discharged in January, 1934. The receivership petition had been filed in March, 1932, by Leo F. Faust, president, and Charles M. Faust, secretary, who alleged the company was solvent but that dissonance within the business and general trade conditions made a receivership advisable.

Schedules show liabilities of $37,048 and assets of $84,597, of which $53,644 is due in open accounts.

CLAYTON SEWER DISTRICT VOTES FOR BOND ISSUE

$226,000 to Be Spent for Construction of System—Trustees Elected.

The Clayton Sanitary Sewer District yesterday voted 558 to 31 for the issuance of $226,000 of bonds for construction of sewers. A two-thirds majority was necessary for passage of the proposition.

Three trustees were elected without opposition. They are: Vincent C. Sigillito, for a six-year term; Louis V. Gutman, for four years; and W. Scott Smith, for two years.

Four trunk line sewers connecting with the large duct at Clayton road and converging at about Hanley road and Manchester avenue are to be constructed. From the converging point a large trunk line will be built to the Deer Creek branch of River des Peres.

SWITZER PLAYS HIS BEST ROUND IN BEATING COCHRAN

WHITBREAD IS ELIMINATED IN OPENING ROUND BY TOM DRAPER

In back of the green, to within eight feet of the hole, missed the putt.

Switzer Goes Into Lead.

Joe took the lead with another birdie at the long fifteenth when Cochran, after hooking his tee shot, played badly after placing his third on the edge of the green. Joe three-putted the sixteenth and missed a chance to increase his margin, while Cochran kept the match alive at the seventeenth by sinking a putt about 10 feet long for his par.

At the eighteenth Bob put his second on a path to the left, while Joe's second was just over the back edge. The path is played as a hazard and Bob had to try to pitch on without grounding his club. He made a nice shot and left himself another 10-footer, which he missed, and conceded the match and hole to Switzer after Joe had chipped his third to within four feet of the cup.

Fehlig had a hard fight on his hands with Schlude, too, for Mark built a lead of 3 up at one time and Vincent had to keep plugging to catch the youngster, but he finally accomplished the feat.

The old guard got another lacing, just as it did when Dick Bockenkamp failed to qualify, when Elliott Whitbread, Westborough, former district and state champion, fell at the hands of Tom Draper Jr., Normandine and Washington University golf captain, 2 and 1. Elliott was 6 down at one point, but managed to recover and played one under par from the eighth hole, but he couldn't make up the margin.

Whitbread said it was the first time in his life he had ever been 5 down after nine holes in a match with another amateur. But his first par was made at the eighth hole. And coming in, he kept hacking away at Draper's lead, but Tom made a fine recovery shot to the seventeenth green to gain a half and put an end to the match. Jimmy Manion, Meadowbrook, eked out a hard-fought victory over Dick Kohlman, Woodlawn, one up. The youthful Kohlman battled the veteran all the way to the last green before succumbing, and even there, facing a deficit of one hole, he made Manion sink an eight-footer for a half for Dick chipped his third beautifully to within six inches of the cup.

Shots Par but Losses. Charley Martin, Norwood Hills player, had the very unusual and sad experience of shooting 71, even par for the course, and losing 3 and 1 to Jimmy Black, Normandine, who reported for the match with a string of blisters around his neck. From Monday's contest, Black, Glen Echo, 4 and 2, but most of the winners were among the younger group of District players, among them being Lou Fehlig, Vincent's brother, who trounced Thurston Pettus, St. Louis Country Club, 3 and 1; Louis Wasson, Woodlawn, who defeated Ernie Beck, Norwood Hills, 5 and 3; Walter Ambo, University City, who won from George Stamm, Normandine, 4 and 3; Frank Bredell, Woodlawn, who eliminated Sidney Salomon, Westwood, 3 and 2; Dave Garroway Jr., Normandine, who trounced Vernon Tietjen, Triple A, 4 and 3; and Bud Hofmeister, Forest Park, who won from Fred Evans, Norwood Hills southpaw, 3 and 2.

Bredell's victory over Salomon was history repeating itself for it was Frank who put Sid out of the 1934 tournament in the first round by a score of 1 up. Sid has served notice if he draws Frank in the first round of the State at Belleville next week he will concede the match immediately.

Strecker Wins Rifle Match.

H. Strecker shot 198 to take the 100-yard small bore rifle match held at the Glendale Shooting Club on Manchester road. C. Beyer, with 197, was second, and Dick Dorian, although making the same score, was third because Beyer had 9 X's; Dorian 8.

He Defeated Champion—Joe Switzer Drives Out a Straight One

Switzer played one of the best match play rounds of his career in defeating Cochran. Joe played carefully and methodically, and although he finished the first nine holes down, he went on to win.

Looking back over the contest, it seemed the victory turned at the fifth hole, where Cochran, 2 up, had a comparatively easy putt for a "birdie," and Joe was in a ditch with his second shot. Switzer waded into the mud, swung his niblick and drove the ball onto the green and proceeded to run down a long putt for his four, while Cochran missed his for a three and could only get a half.

Joe won his first hole at the play-off activities and super-confidence, the champion is smart enough not to underestimate any fighter with Braddock's courage and determination. He is not only in good condition but he probably will discard his wisecracking, once he is face to face with Braddock in the ring.

The threatening talk from Baer's camp about the selection of a referee is not to be taken seriously. It's the old stuff. The champion's manager will abide by the Boxing Commission's selection and like it, although he protests in advance may be sufficient to keep Arthur Donovan from getting the assignment. Jack Dempsey hardly can get the call, either, because of his close association in the past with the champion.

Suggests Five Referees.
Anol Hoffman, Baer's manager, yesterday proposed a list of five nationally known referees to the commission, and asked that one of them be picked as the third man. His candidates were:

James J. "Gene" Tunney, former heavyweight champion.
George V. Blake, generally regarded as boxing's foremost official.

Lieutenant-Commander Jess Kenworthy, U. S. N., one of the heroes of the Macon disaster and an experienced referee.
Ed W. Dickerson, sports editor of Grand Rapids.

"None but New York referees will be considered," replied Gen. J. J. Phelan, chairman of the commission. "Any further remarks?"

"Indeed, yes," answered Hoffman, arising and walking several feet away from the big desk where the commissioners sat. He turned his back, and long Harvard quartet, engaged Pennsylvania Military College and West Point riding against Yale.

Despite Princeton's showing Saturday when the Tigers downed Yale, the Army team was favored to win.

WIRAY'S COLUMN

It's a Magic Name.

NEW YORK, N. Y., June 12.

WHAT'S in a name? Many thousands of dollars if it happens to be Jack Dempsey. Believe it or leave it, we say that the most valuable moniker in the sport world today is none other than William Harrison Dempsey, who was twice defeated for the heavyweight championship and who has been out of the fistful running for something like eight years.

For years Dempsey, who was booed and jeered in fight after fight while he held the title, has capitalized his name for thousands of dollars. In defeat, he has been even more popular than in victory. He has made himself a name for himself in the sport world. No beaten champion in history has approached his post-championship success. He is the caterer supreme. He is reaping still another harvest through his restaurant and bar. Many ex-champions have tried to capitalize their names in a similar way. All went broke. That includes Sullivan, Corbett, Jeffries, Willard and others.

But Dempsey in his new venture here at Eighth avenue and Fiftieth street is proving that his popularity was really solidly grounded. He is not only the pugilistic oracle of the city, but he is the caterer supreme. He is making more money than he did in his heyday as a boxer.

The Talk of the Town.
Dempsey's place here is literally the talk of the town. That's not because of any unusual magnificence or because of exclusive patronage. This writer visited Jack's establishment looking for a fight interview at 7:30 in the evening. To talk to him was like trying to pick up a globe of mercury with boxing gloves. The visitor had to elbow his way through the crowded vestibule to find Jack. There he stood at the entrance to the dining room, surrounded by men and women begging for his signature for autographs. A book three feet high was open and each customer registered.

Beyond, in an enormous hall, were the diners. Mrs. Dempsey told this writer that it accommodated more than 700 persons and pointed out that customers were waiting for a chance to be seated. Jimmy Braddock himself was there, as was Jimmy Johnston, promoter of the title fight.

Was there any occasion for the big crowd? We inquired. "It's like this every evening," Mrs. Dempsey volunteered. "The dining room is so large that the orchestra can hardly be heard above the din of conversation from those halfway down the hall. The food was good and the prices not too high, according to St. Louis scale—very reasonable on a New York basis."

The place is a financial wow—and Dempsey himself is the model "mine host." He meets one and all, shakes hands with everybody, listens patiently to each little story, invites all to register, au-graphs when necessary and in the meantime tries to answer reporters' questions. This goes on for hours. Dempsey is proving himself in business what he was as a fighter—a stayer.

We Interview Jack.
BETWEEN registrations, greetings and answering wifely questions we managed to slip a query across to Dempsey. "Who'll win?" "Well, you know. It looks like Max ought to beat him in four or five rounds. But fights end funny, sometimes," Dempsey said. Jack ought to know, after Chicago, 1927.

Auto Race Stars Plan to Promote Events This Year

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 12.—America's leading automobile race drivers have incorporated and will promote their own contests this summer.

The organization includes Wild Bill Cummings, national driving champion; Louis Meyer, twice winner of the 500-mile race here; Fred Frame, Babe Stapp, Wilbur Shaw, Lou Moore, Al Gordon, Deacon Litt, William Cantlon and Mauri Rose. All the men participated in the 500-mile race May 30. They will tour the country, under present plans, racing on dirt track and Sunday morning starting at 9:30 o'clock until about noon.

Articles of incorporation were filed in Indianapolis. The racing troupe will be known as Champion Drivers, Inc.

Harry (Cotton) Henning, racing mechanic, is resident agent for the drivers. He said today the organization has the approval of the contest board of the American Automobile Association. Peter DePaolo, former driver, also is connected with the outfit. "We plan to lease tracks and race all over the country," Henning said. "We hope to stage some races where points will be given the winning drivers toward the 1935 driving championship."

Organization, Henning said, will be completed within a week and the first series of races will be held soon thereafter.

Failed to Start.
The Keystone State League did not start this year, although York, Lancaster, Lebanon and Pottstown were ready.

LANDIS AWAITS ALABAMA PITTS CASE RECORDS

By the Associated Press.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Kenesaw Mountain Landis, the final court of appeals in organized baseball, today awaited the records in the case of Edwin "Alabama" Pitts, ex-convict who was denied the right to play ball with the Albany club of the International League.

Commissioner Landis was expected to receive the reports late today or tomorrow. Meanwhile he remained in seclusion at his hotel suite because of a severe cold and high blood pressure, but his secretary indicated there was little chance for a decision until next week.

The 68-year-old former judge followed his usual rule of complete silence on a case pending definite decision, and there was no comment from his office on the possibility of Pitts personally presenting his appeal from the decision of the president and Executive Committee of the National Minor Baseball League Association.

It was understood scores of letters and telegrams on both sides of the issue were received by Landis as the case came to him. Among them were believed to be several offers of interested parties to appear personally on behalf of the 24-year-old New Yorker who gained fame as a player on the Sing Sing penitentiary nine.

But whether the commissioner would hear the pleas including one from Warden Lewis E. Lawes of Sing Sing was not known.

STATE ARCHERY MEET STARTS SATURDAY; SIX DIVISIONS THIS YEAR

The Missouri State Archery tournament will be held Saturday and Sunday at the St. Louis Archery Club's range in Forest Park, next to the Mounted Police Station. There will be six classes of competition this year, instead of two as in previous years.

The meet will be divided into men and women's divisions, and these in turn will be divided into A, B and C classes. Those in A class must have shot a 600 score for a York round some time previously, while the other classes are determined from previous scores in minor tournaments. The women's group will be similarly divided.

The program for the meet is a York round Saturday morning starting at 9:30 o'clock, and continuing throughout the afternoon, and Sunday morning starting at 9:30 o'clock until about noon.

ASSOCIATION PLAYER HITS ON SIXTH TIME UP TO CONTINUE STREAK

CHICAGO, June 12.—Eddie Marshall's record-breaking hitting streak was still alive today, thanks to an extra turn at bat. The Milwaukee shortstop, who shattered the American Association record Monday by hitting in his fortieth consecutive game, went hitless in five trips to the plate, and the prospects looked black. But in the ninth inning he got another chance, and smashed out a single to run his streak to 41 consecutive games.

Milwaukee didn't need Marshall's bat, however. The Brewers bunched 12 hits effectively to defeat St. Paul, 13 to 5, pushing over four runs in the fourth inning and six more in the sixth.

St. Paul's defeat and Indianapolis' 8½ victory didn't need Marshall's lead in the American Association race on the basis of games won and lost, although the Saints held a lead of four percentage points. Minneapolis climbed back into third place by defeating Kansas City, 3 to 0.

Louisville defeated Columbus, 2 to 1, in another night game.

WRESTLING RESULTS

New York.—Carlos Henriquez, 160, threw Herman Kuebler, Greer, Muscadier, New York, tossed Mike Yank, Chicago.
At Chicago.—Denny O'Mahoney, 160, defeated Emil Dusek, Omaha; Jim McMillen, Chicago, and Phil Gromber, Milwaukee, draw.
Minneapolis.—Lou Plummer, 268, Baltimore, defeated Al Casey, 208, New Jersey, one-fall match; Hal Runnels, 235, Spokane, threw Sol Stangel, 270, Kansas, one fall.
Tulsa, Ok.—Jim Lando successfully defended his heavyweight wrestling championship by defeating Hugh Nichols in two straight falls.

BUCKY HARRIS ABOUT CONVINCED SENATORS HAVEN'T MUCH CHANCE

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, June 12.—Bucky Harris, who piloted the Washington Senators to their first pennant 11 years ago, is just about convinced that the Senators haven't much chance in the current American League flag chase. "I don't believe I have enough pitching to become a pennant threat, now that Buck Newman is lost to the club," he explained. "But if Buck gets back within a month or so, we will give a lot of those pennant contenders a few headaches."

FIRETHORN AND COLD SHOULDER TO RUN IN DETROIT DERBY

SUN PORTLAND, ROMAN SOLDIER RULE AS WEST'S HOPES IN RACE

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, June 12.—Although Omaha, the three-year-old champion, will not be among those present, the $25,000 Detroit Derby Saturday night will be a real race.

Walter M. Jeffords' Firethorn, second to Omaha in the Preakness, Belmont Stakes, and A. G. Vanderbilt's Cold Shoulder, which set the pace for more than a mile in the Belmont, left here today for the Kentucky Derby, already in the grounds, having turned a mile and three-sixteenths in 2:03 yesterday.

ST. LOUIS POST-DISPATCH

POUR OFF

By Dizzy Dean

BOSTON, June 12.

WHEN it was cold the first few days of the season, some of the experts, of which I am becoming one, says the big leagues shouldn't ought to start their races so early, but the way it looks now I got a suggestion for Mr. Frick and Mr. Harbridge. Maybe it would be better to start playin' our league games about March 15 and then between showers we might get through without havin' to do what we're gonna have to do this year, which is to crowd a flock of double-headers into the last few weeks of the race.

*BOSTON MAY NOT GET THE APPLE SO HARD IN OUR CIRCUIT BUT UP THERE AT THE PLATE IN THE COFFIN BALL LEAGUE

One thing the rain does, though, is give us ball players a chance to go sight-seein'. Boston is a great place for that, but I been puzzled by one thing. They tell me this is the city of cabins and lodges but I see more cabins in Mississippi, Alabama or any other Southern city than I see here and if a fellow wants to join lodges he can get all the nights off he wants in good old Missouri. But I'll say one thing for Boston—you can't beat them steamed claims. And the next day off I'm goin' down to the cape and see some of the Cods.

SNYDER WINNER IN FOUR OUT OF FIVE RACES ON MIDGET PROGRAM

By Harry McKanna.

Jimmy Snyder of Chicago won four of the five events he competed in at the third outdoor midget auto racing program at the Walsh Stadium last night.

The five-mile Welcome Inn sweepstakes, the 10-lap semifinal and the five-lap midget dash, Jimmy did some skillful driving, but the field was the poorest of any program held at the Arena or Stadium.

Tony Willman and Tudy Marchese, both of Milwaukee, Al drivers, were missing, and the only competition Snyder received was from Marshall Lewis of St. Louis.

Lewis had trouble all evening with his motor, and in the two races in which his car was functioning well, he defeated Snyder once. Lewis won a five-lap midget race and gave the Chicagoan the stiffest competition in the five-mile final, Snyder crossing the line only 15 feet ahead of the local driver.

Wilbur Shaw of Indianapolis, driving a Miller Special, appeared as though he would give Snyder, driving an outboard motor equipped car, an argument in the final, but encountered motor trouble. Lewis, running third early in the race, started cutting down Snyder's lead after 19 laps, and kept crawling up.

On the last lap Snyder was a real race. At the finish Snyder's margin was three-third car lengths. Snyder's time for the five miles was 7m 39.75s.

Snyder gave the fans an added thrill besides his driving in the sweepstakes by bouncing off a real race. At the finish Snyder's margin was three-third car lengths. Snyder's time for the five miles was 7m 39.75s.

ASSISTANT HEAD OF SCHOOLS GETS PLAYGROUND POST

School Board Gives Position That Rodowe H. Abeken Lost to George L. Hawkins.

MOVE TO REHIRE LAWYER FAILS

Means Saving of $1000—$3000 Appropriation Voted for Junket to Educational Meeting.

Following the monthly meeting of the Board of Education last night at which an unsuccessful effort was made to reconsider last month's action in dropping Rodowe H. Abeken as director of the summer playgrounds, Superintendent of Instruction Gerling announced that Assistant Superintendent George L. Hawkins would have charge of the playgrounds this summer.

Hawkins will serve without additional pay. Abeken, a lawyer, would have been paid more than $1000 for his services. Appointment of the staff of playground workers was approved as anticipated.

Vice-President Henry P. Schroeder, who had voted for Abeken's reappointment in May, offered a motion to reconsider, although he conceded afterwards he was not in a position to do so because of the way he had voted. Abeken had been defeated, 6 to 5, with one member not voting. Schroeder asserted that President Cameron had told friends of Abeken "things would be straightened out and would come out all right for Abeken." Dr. Cameron had voted against Abeken.

No Second to Motion.

There was no second to Schroeder's motion and Dr. Cameron did not reply to him. The president told a reporter later that he did not know what Schroeder was talking about. Schroeder said he had been told he did not have enough here to bring the question up in open meeting. The flurry reflected under currents of minor differences among board members.

An appropriation of $3000 was voted on Schroeder's motion to pay expenses of board members on a junket to the meeting of the National Education Association at Atlantic City, starting June 28. Expenditure of individual members was limited to $250. It was thought a number of members would make the trip. President Cameron said the action did not preclude use of board automobiles for the journey, instead of other transportation. It was argued that the board should attend the meeting in order to stimulate attendance at the convention of the association's department of superintendence, to be held here in February. Formerly the board did not authorize junkets in its public record, but paid for them through officers' contingent funds.

To Buy New Sedan.

Purchase of a new seven-passenger sedan for the Building Department for not more than $2600, was authorized. It will replace a Pierce-Arrow car burned in the board's shops May 2.

At request by Building Commissioner Sanger, two positions in his department, which were abolished several years ago in a controversy with a former commissioner, were re-established. These were chief engineer, in charge of heating and ventilating, at $4500 a year, and superintendent of custodians at $3600. Sanger said he was not ready to announce whom he would appoint chief engineer. He said Philip C. Brante, former superintendent of custodians and recently doing the same work as director of custodians at $2700 a year would be made superintendent.

$125,000 for Repairs Approved.

Approval was given for $125,000 in repair and replacement work in school buildings and heating plants during the summer. An additional $100,000 will be requested next month.

Contracts were awarded for $100,000 in miscellaneous educational supplies for the next year, for $80,000 in laboratory supplies, for about $10,000 for printing the board's proceedings, reports and other publications and about $15,000 for miscellaneous printing.

Contracts were awarded the low bids for 40,000 tons of coal for the next year's supply, details of which were published in the Post-Dispatch yesterday. The cost will be $101,628, or $41,062 less than the bid cost of an approximately similar tonnage last year. The reduction was attributed largely to abolition of NIA codes. For the first time the entire supply will be hauled from nearby Illinois mines by truck, without use of the railroads.

Bank Gets Contract.

A contract was awarded the Security National Bank Savings & Trust Co., the only bidder, for handling the board's bank account for the fiscal year starting July 1. It will pay 1.5 of 1 per cent interest, the same as it has been paying for the general account for the year now ending. Another bank has a smaller bond account, but it was decluded to consolidate the accounts.

Superintendent Gerling's annual reappointment of John B. Quinn as chief attendance officer and Dr. J. H. Humphrey as director of the hygiene division was approved.

WIFE, SON AND THEIR DOCTOR ACCUSED IN KILLING OF FATHER

Webster County Prosecutor Says Youth Confessed Man Was Murdered for Insurance.

By the Associated Press.

MARSHFIELD, Mo., June 12.—Murder charges have been filed against Lloyd Robinson, 18 years old, his mother and their family physician in connection with the killing June 3 of the youth's father, Robert Robinson.

Homier Chaffin, Webster County prosecutor, said Lloyd had confessed the killing to collect $10,000 insurance and named Mrs. Mary Robinson, 49, and Dr. F. W. Schlicht, 58, Niangua, Mo., as responsible for the alleged plot against the 50-year-old farmer.

The three are held in the county jail here pending arraignment June 20.

Chaffin said the motive for the crime apparently was to get money to pay an $8000 mortgage which was to have been foreclosed June 5 or 6 on the Robinson farm.

In a signed confession, officers said they had obtained from the youth, Lloyd said he struck his father with a heavy rasp as he sat at the dinner table, and then walked to the door where his mother was waiting and said: "Mother, I've done it."

Lloyd and his mother, the confession said, carried the body to the son's motor car after which the youth drove to a lonely spot south of Newburg, Mo., poured kerosene over the seat cushions on which the body lay and set them afire. The physician, the confession related, was to have received part of the insurance money.

BODY TAKEN FROM MERAMEC, HEAD AND CHEST INJURED

Coroner Finds No Water in Lungs; Unidentified Man Apparently Was 45 Years Old.

The body of an unidentified man about 45 years old, was taken from the Meramec River yesterday near Weeks Station, five miles south of Highway 61 bridge. The base of the skull was fractured from ear to ear and the left side of the chest was crushed. The body appeared to have been in the water at least four days.

An open verdict was returned at an inquest last night. Dr. O. F. Reich, Jefferson County Coroner, said death had been caused by the injuries, rather than by drowning, as no water was in the lungs. From the character of the wounds, Dr. Reich said he thought it probable that the man had been struck by an automobile or train.

The man was about 5 feet, 8 inches tall, weighed about 170 pounds, and had blue eyes and gray hair. He was wearing a shabby blue suit and brown shoes. Folded in a shoe, to cover a hole, was a St. Louis newspaper dated May 20. In the pockets of the clothing were a razor, soap, needles and thread. The body was taken to the Hellingtag Undertaking Co. at Antonia.

$145 Taken in Holdup.

A store of the Gasen Drug Co., 5901 Easton avenue, was robbed of $145 last night by an armed man who held up the manager, Joseph Rice, two clerks and a customer.

• "Let's have a Camel," says Mel Ott, heavy-hitting outfielder of the New York Giants, to his team mate, Harold Schumacher, ace pitcher... a Camel fan himself, as you see! They agree that Camels have real mildness. Mel says: "I smoke all I want, yet keep in good condition. Camels are so mild, they never get my wind or bother my nerves." And Hal adds: "To my mind that settles it! Camel is the cigarette with real mildness. I'd walk a mile for a Camel!"

In baseball, and in all the strenuous sports, leading athletes cite the fact that Camels are mild... that Camels never ruffle their nerves or get their wind. And to this impressive evidence of Camel's mildness is added the experience of business men, home-makers, farmers, salesmen, business girls—people in every walk of life who wish to smoke freely and keep fit. They say: "Camels are mild. You can smoke all you wish!"

WIFE SUES ALVIN HACKMAN FOR SEPARATE MAINTENANCE

Says Lawyer Did Not Support Her and Two Children Properly.
Suit for separate maintenance.

was filed yesterday by Mrs. Lucille L. Hackman, 4036 Holly Hills boulevard, against Alvin F. Hackman, an attorney, with offices in the Title Guaranty Building.
She alleges general indignities, charging that her husband failed to support her and their two children properly and that he spent large amounts in hiring taxicabs and other rental machines.

They were married Sept. 7, 1921, and separated last Christmas day. Mrs. Hackman asked for judgment providing for $60 a week. Hackman could not be reached. He was formerly an associate City Counselor.

STUDENT, 19, SAVES MAN FROM DROWNING

Fully Clothed, Plunges Into Creek and Rescues University City Fisherman.

Albert Brazier, proprietor of a cleaning establishment at 7335 Forsythe boulevard, University City, was rescued from drowning Monday by Robert Urian, 19-year-old St. Louis University sophomore, who plunged in the swollen waters of Little Boeuf Creek, near New Haven, Mo., and towed Brazier to shore after the latter had fallen in while fishing.

Brazier, one of a party of five, was fishing from the bank, some distance from the others, when he stepped on a rotten log, lost his balance and fell into water 12 feet deep. A weak swimmer, he managed to keep afloat while shouting for help.

Urian, one of the party, ran along the bank to a point near Brazier and, without removing his clothing, dived from the 12-foot bank. He kept the other man afloat by grasping his shirt as they were swept downstream, guiding him toward the shore. Their friends followed along the bank and pulled them in several hundred feet downstream. Save for exhaustion and a drenching, neither was the worse for the experience.

Brazier, 38 years old, resides at 1410 Belt avenue, and Urian at 7320 Forsythe boulevard. Others in the party were Herman Friedman, druggist, 7336 Forsythe; E. J. Hanley, 7138 Forsythe, and Fred C. Domrese, 21 Lee avenue, Clayton. New Haven is about 75 miles west of St. Louis.

W. R. Smith Accused of Manslaughter in Running Down Sisters May 23.

William B. Smith, owner of a confectionery, 2703A Henrietta street, was charged with manslaughter in two indictments voted yesterday in the death of Miss Grace M. Wood, and her sister, Miss Mary F. Wood, who were struck by an automobile on the night of May 23, on Lafayette avenue, near Waverly place. The other indictments charge Smith with driving when intoxicated and leaving the scene of an accident. After striking the two women, who were crossing the street to their home, 1722A Waverly place, the driver of the car drove to Mississippi avenue and Kennett place, where he abandoned it. The license had been issued to Smith and he was identified by a witness as the driver of the car.

Arrested at a tavern, 2641 Lafayette avenue, Smith made a statement to police that his car hit something and that he became excited and fled. He explained that he had been drinking and was on his way from one tavern to another. He thought he had struck another machine, he said.

Smith's car bore marks of a collision. A piece of an automobile horn picked up on the street at the scene fitted the broken horn on his car, and a pair of eye-glasses, identified as belonging to Miss Mary Wood, were found on the running board of his automobile. Miss Grace Wood was 62 years old, her sister 58.

AUTO HITS POLE AND UPSETS, MAN KILLED, TWO HURT

Robert C. Riehl, Richmond Heights, Thrown Out of Car, Fatally Injured—Driver Is Held.

Robert C. Riehl, 25-year-old clerk, was killed when the automobile in which he was riding struck a pole and overturned in the 5200 block of Manchester avenue at 1:25 a. m. today.

Kenneth Durney, 7247 Sarah street, Maplewood, the driver, told police, they reported, that he swung the wheel to turn out of the street car tracks while travelling east at about 30 miles an hour. The machine crashed into a pole of the Union Electric Light and Power Co. Riehl, sitting beside the driver, was thrown out, suffering a fractured skull. Two other passengers, Eugene Liston, a clerk, and Miss Betty Sheller, were cut and bruised.

Durney, who was held for the coroner, stated, police said, that he and the others drank beer at a tavern at 6948 Manchester avenue, where Miss Sheller is employed as a waitress. City Hospital physicians examined Durney and pronounced him sober.

Riehl, son of James G. Riehl, resided at 7033 Glades avenue, Richmond Heights. His death was the seventy-fourth motor vehicle fatality in the city since Jan. 1, as compared with 67 in the corresponding period last year.

William Short, 70, engineer at St. Louis Hospital, is in serious condition at the hospital with a fractured skull suffered yesterday afternoon when he was knocked down by an automobile at Union boulevard and Enright avenue. Frank Chiauuro, 1024 Tamm avenue, the driver, told police that Short walked against the machine as it was starting up.

MAN WHO "KILLED TO SAVE WIFE'S HONOR" DIVORCED

Judge Who Sentenced Husband to 14 Years Grants Decree to Chicago Woman.

CHICAGO, June 12.—Three years ago Peter Del Page killed a man. He said he did it to protect the "honor" of his wife, Edith, now 22 years old. The courts gave him a 14-year sentence.

His wife went into Divorce Court yesterday. She asked for a divorce on the ground that her husband was a felon because he had killed. On the bench of the Divorce Court was Judge Francis Allegretti—the judge who, when in the Criminal Court, sentenced the husband.

"It's too bad," said the Judge, "that I have to grant the divorce. But the wife has legal grounds."

ROOSEVELT TELLS WEST POINTERS TO WORK FOR PEACE

DECLARES WORLD NEEDS TRANQUILLITY

Counsels Future Army Officers to View Their Profession in Light of the General Good.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 12.—The greatest need of the world, President Roosevelt asserted in a speech here today, is "the assurance of peace—an assurance based on mutual understanding and mutual regard." He addressed the graduating class of the United States Military Academy.

"If you strive at all times," he said, "to promote friendship and to discourage suspicion, to teach respect for the rights of others and to deny aggression, to oppose intolerance with a spirit of mutual helpfulness—then indeed your service will be of full value to your government and a source of satisfaction to yourselves."

After the exercises, the President boarded a special train shortly after noon to return to Washington.

High Army Officers Present.
The President addressed the future officers of the Army surrounded by one of the largest groups of Army leaders assembled in years, including Secretary of War Dern, Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Chief of Staff, and Major-General William D. Connor, superintendent of the Academy.

Two hundred and seventy-six cadets marched to Battle Monument to receive diplomas from their Commander-in-Chief. Roosevelt was the first President to attend the exercises since President Wilson came here in 1916.

The ceremonies included a 21-gun salute when the President's motorcade entered the reservation after a drive from the Roosevelt home at Hyde Park, 35 miles away.

Text of Address.
The text of President Roosevelt's address follows:

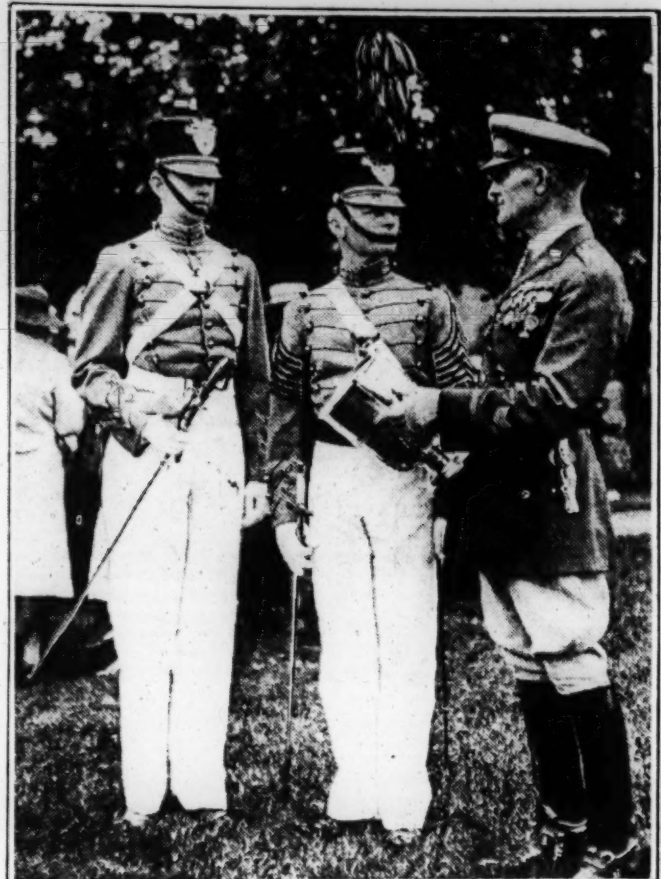

"I am glad to be here with you, young men, who are about to become officers of the highly efficient regular army of the United States. I wish to recognize that you are an integral part not only of that army but also of the citizenship of the United States. As a nation we have been fortunate in a geographic isolation which in itself partially protected our boundless resources. To that happy circumstance has been added the priceless blessing of friendship with our near neighbors."

Relationship to Others.
"You, with specialization it is essential that those who enter upon a profession, civilian or military, must maintain a close relationship with the practical relationship of their own profession to the rights, hopes and the needs of the whole body of citizens who make up the nation. One of the most difficult tasks of Government today is to avoid the aggrandizement of any group and to keep the main object of the general good clear and unimpaired."

"The captain of a company will think only of his company. He forgets the relationship of his company to the company on his left and the company on his right. The relationship of his company to the regiment as a whole. The successful commander of an army must give consideration to all of the units which make up his army. In addition must be necessary to remember the existence, the condition and the ultimate strength of the reserves and of the civilian population which is serving the same cause behind the lines."

A sense of proportion is essential to the effective attainment of any great objective. I shall always remember a day in the summer of 1918 when I visited the headquarters of Gen. Foch, the Commander-in-Chief of the Allied and Associated Armies. With a single aide I departed from Paris and came to a delightful old chateau far behind the lines and lying within its little walled park in the most peaceful, bucolic surroundings you can imagine, one sentry at the gate. Within the park a few chickens and a couple of cows. At the door, nobody. In answer to our ring, the door was opened by a Captain and in a moment we found ourselves in the presence of Gen. Foch, who was sitting in a comfortable chair in a large drawing room, reading a French novel. I spent an hour with the General and discovered that his entire staff consisted of half a dozen officers and a dozen privates.

"While I was there a young British dispatch rider came in bearing the daily report from Marshal Haig. That report was written in long-hand on one sheet of paper. It said in effect: 'My dear General. No advances or retirements of major importance today. Reserves increased 1500 men since yesterday. They now total 275,000. Very sincerely yours.'"

"A few minutes later a similar note was brought by an aide of Gen. Pershing."

"I marveled at the simplicity of the General's headquarters and at the apparent lack of detail which he received from the Generals in command of the various armies. Foch said to me, 'If I concerned myself with details, I could not win the war. I can consider only major advances or major retirements. The knowledge of movements of two or three kilometers here or there would confuse me by diverting my attention from the great objective. Only major results and major strategy concern a commander-in-chief. Most especially am I concerned with the reserve power of men, of guns, of ammunition and of supplies. That includes of necessity consideration of what the people of France, the people of England and the people of the United States are doing and can do to keep the Allied armies in a position to make victory a certainty.'"

Fortunate as Nation.
"You who are about to become officers of the highly efficient regular army of the United States will recognize that you are an integral part not only of that army but also of the citizenship of the United States. As a nation we have been fortunate in a geographic isolation which in itself partially protected our boundless resources. To that happy circumstance has been added the priceless blessing of friendship with our near neighbors."

and other people, to learn their points of view and to appreciate their aspirations. If you strive at all times to promote friendship and to discourage suspicion, to teach respect for the rights of others and to deny aggression, to oppose intolerance with a spirit of mutual helpfulness—then indeed your service will be of full value to your government and a source of satisfaction to yourselves."

"Sympathetic understanding of fellowmen has even been the hallmark of the leader. Last, but by no means least, you will be worthy of the illustrious traditions of West Point."

"Personally, I extend to each and every one of you who graduate today my congratulations and best wishes. As Commander-in-Chief of the Army of the United States, I tell you that I am proud of you and wish you Godspeed."

Mrs. Roosevelt, who flew here today from Raleigh, N. C., joined the President and his mother on their arrival. John Roosevelt, youngest son of the President, accompanied him to the stand.

POLAND SAID TO HAVE AGREED TO AID DANZIG FINANCIALLY

Promise Reported Made in Return for Concessions That Would Impair Nazi Prestige.

FREE CITY OF DANZIG, June 12.—The Nazi-controlled Senate suspended quotations of foreign currencies on the Bourse today as Poland was reported to have promised financial aid to the city in return for concessions which would seriously impair Nazi prestige.

The Senate decrees also subjected to the control of a new foreign exchange board the purchase of gold, transfer of gulden into foreign exchange and payment of foreign debts in gulden. Danzig residents will be permitted to take only 20 gulden from the country when traveling abroad. Foreign exchange quotations will be fixed by the Bank of Danzig.

The price of Poland's financial assistance was unofficially said to include substitution of the Polish zloty for the gulden, full administration of customs and port police, partial control over courts and replacement of 500 German functionaries by Poles.

NAZIS SEIZE PROPERTY OF 38 GERMAN EXILES

Citizenship Also Revoked; Former Reich Minister of Finance in the List.

BERLIN, June 12.—The Nazi Government confiscated the property of 38 German emigrants and revoked their German citizenship yesterday. All have been living abroad since the rise of the Nazis to power.

The list includes a former Reich Minister of Finance, Rudolf Hildebrand, member of the Stresemann and Muller Cabinets.

Others prominent in the pre-Nazi period whose property was confiscated are Karl Hoefermann, leader of the Republican Reichsbanner, Kurt Hiler, editor of the Radical Socialist Welt-Buehne, Erika Mann, daughter of Thomas Mann, writer, Victor Schiff, foreign editor of the Socialist Vorwaerts, Berthold Brecht, Walter Nehring and Paul Westheim, radical publicists, and Arthur Wolff, prominent in stage affairs.

Senate Adopts Judgments Report.
WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Senate yesterday adopted a conference report on a bill to make 14 temporary judgments permanent. The bill includes one for the Eastern District of Missouri and one for the Western District of Missouri.

R. S. HECHT CRITICIZES CENTRAL BANK PROPOSAL

Says It Means "Ultimate Disappearance of Our Private Banking System."

OMAHA, Neb., June 12.—R. S. Hecht of New Orleans, president of the American Bankers' Association, told the American Institute of Banking last night that the enactment of legislation for a Government-owned and controlled banking system would mean "nothing short of the ultimate disappearance of our private banking system." He spoke at the thirty-third convention of the institute.

The bankers' future "would not be a promising one if we were to turn back a hundred years and experiment for a third time with a central bank, and especially one whose stock would be owned entirely by the Government," he said.

Most bankers, Hecht added, strongly favor the present regional system under private ownership.

INCREASE IN APPLICATIONS FOR FEDERAL HOUSING LOANS

Total Last Week Was Double That for First Week in April, Bureau Announces.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Asserting that "a great many" Federal Housing Administration committees report "there is no longer any idleness whatever in certain building trades in their territories," Stewart McDonald, acting administrator, announced yesterday that last week set a record for insurance applications.

The total was $10,272,933, double the amount of applications the first week in April, he said. Applications included $7,085,000 for insurance of mortgage loans, with 34 per cent of new construction and $3,187,933 for modernization loans.

NORTHERN COTTON MILL POLICY Manufacturers Against Changes in Conduct of Business.

BOSTON, June 12.—Northern cotton textile manufacturers voted yesterday to "recommend to all Northern textile manufacturers that no changes be made in the conduct of the cotton textile business."

Similar action was taken last week by the Southern manufacturers at Charlotte, N. C.

ETHIOPIA REPORTS 'CHARACTERISTIC ITALIAN' ATTACK

Strongly Worded Note of Protest Against Violation of Frontier Is Sent to Rome.

ADDIS ABABA, June 12.—Ethiopia presented a strongly worded note to the Italian Minister today protesting against what it termed "characteristic aggression" by Italy's colonial troops in Ethiopian territory.

The protest, signed by Foreign Minister Herouy, was a reply to the Italian emissary's complaint concerning an alleged incident near the Tafari Katama frontier posts.

Herouy denied Ethiopian responsibility for the incidents and charged that Italian native bands had violated the Ethiopian frontier.

"No Ethiopian soldiers participated in the incident which is the object of the Italian Minister's protest," the note said. "On the contrary, Ethiopian soldiers remained in their posts at Tafari Katama, according to the orders given them."

"Members of the Ethiopian tribe of Gules grazing their animals in the environs of Tafari Katama were attacked by Italian bands of native recruits attempting to capture their animals. The tribesmen rightly resisted, routing the aggressors."

"The aggression by Italian bands on Ethiopian territory constitutes a new violation and characteristic aggression against which Ethiopia formally protests."

Hospital Patients on Hunger Strike.

WARSAW, June 12.—One hundred and twenty patients in the Jewish Hospital for Lung Diseases went on a hunger strike yesterday, demanding better food.

Composer Strauss to Lose Job for Working With Jew

Nazis Are Going to Fire Him Because He Insisted on Using Stefan Zweig's Libretto for Opera.

By the Associated Press.

BERLIN, June 12.—Richard Strauss, distinguished opera and lieder composer, appears likely to be ousted soon as president of the third reich's musical chamber. He was appointed to the office by Paul Joseph Goebbels, Minister of Propaganda, Nov. 15, 1933.

Nazi circles make no secret of the fact that Strauss will be retired almost immediately after the premiere of his latest opera, "The Silent Woman," at Dresden, June 24, because Stefan Zweig, Jewish author, wrote the libretto for it.

Invitations issued for the premiere name Strauss as composer, but do not give the name of the librettist.

Hitherto Strauss usually has used librettos by Hugh von Hofmannsthal, another non-Aryan.

Nazi leaders fully expected Strauss would turn to "Aryan" librettists after Hofmannsthal's death, but Strauss insisted Zweig's paraphrase of Ben Jonson's "Epicoene, or the Silent Woman," was exactly what he needed for his next opera.

A story told in Wilhelmstrasse is to the effect that Goebbels, meeting Strauss at the concert Chancellor Hitler gave for Sir John Simon and Capt. Anthony Eden during their visit to Berlin in March, told him "The Silent Woman" was the last new opera by a Jewish librettist that would be permitted in Nazi Germany.

"But it isn't easy to find librettists," Strauss was said to have replied. "Writing opera text is a special art."

Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goering, Reich Minister of Air, who overheard the conversation and who does not share Goebbels' violent anti-Semitism, patted Strauss on the shoulder and said, "Well, Herr Strauss, you are now 70. By the time you reach your 100th birthday, you'll have a Gentile librettist, all right."

After Goebbels' address at the Sportsplatz Dec. 7, 1934, in which he berated Conductor Wilhelm Furtwaengler, Strauss wired the Propaganda Minister congratulating him on his views regarding German culture.

He took Bruno Walter's place as guest conductor of the Philharmonic Orchestra early in 1933 when other conductors of international fame declined out of sympathy with Jewish colleagues.

However, Strauss' position with the Nazis was made difficult by the fact that his son married a wealthy Jewish girl. The composer himself often stayed with Jewish friends while visiting Dresden and Berlin.

LIBERTY BOND HOLDER RESTS IN SUIT UNDER GOLD CLAUSE

Robert A. Taft, Seeking $1.07, Appears Before Court of Claims Commissioner.

By the Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Robert A. Taft, president of the Dixie Terminal Co. of Cincinnati, O., who is suing the United States for $1.07 on a Liberty Loan gold bond, rested his case yesterday after appearing before Commissioner C. William Ramseyer of the Court of Claims.

Taft said the company owned a $50 bond and that when he presented three interest coupons to the Treasury, payment in gold or its equivalent was refused.

The case is a challenge of the Government's right to invalidate the gold clause contract in its bonds.

Supreme Court's Decision.

The powers of the Insurance Superintendent with respect to policyholders were defined by the Supreme Court a year ago in a decision holding that the Cole County Circuit Court had jurisdiction over a suit to compel the stock fire insurance companies to make full restitution to policyholders of excess premiums collected during nearly seven years of litigation over a 10 per cent fire insurance rate reduction ordered in 1922. The suit still is pending. That decision held invalid a Circuit Court order based on

O'MALLEY'S POWER TO COMPROMISE CLAIMS IN DOUBT

Supreme Court Has Said State Insurance Superintendent Can't Sign Away Policyholders' Rights.

By BOYD F. CARROLL, Jefferson City Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, June 12.—Doubt that State Insurance Superintendent R. E. O'Malley had authority to agree to all of the terms of a pending compromise of litigation over a 162-3 per cent increase in fire insurance rates—which would waive the rights of the policyholders to 80 per cent of the $11,000,000 of excess premiums imposed by the courts in the suits—is raised by Supreme Court decisions in earlier phases of the litigation.

By virtue of his office, Superintendent O'Malley is the legally constituted representative of the policyholders, within the limitations fixed by law, but it is a question whether he or his special counsel may, by stipulation or agreement, sign away any of the rights of the policyholders.

Views of the National Planning Board.

THE final report of the National Planning Board contained some information that might have been interesting reading for the nine gentlemen who tried to put us back in the oxcart age.

"It is this grim situation that takes the problem of national planning out of the field of abstract speculation into the domain of hard and cruel reality. We cannot proceed as if nothing had happened in recent years, indifferent to the sweeping changes going on among us and elsewhere in the world. The experience of our day shows that no system, political or economic, unless it faces frankly the grave realities of modern economic and governmental life and boldly takes the initiative in broad plans for a better day, can be protected against explosion that wrecks and twists while social discontent struggles to build some new structure promising more to the body and soul of those who feel themselves disinherited by the existing order."

"It may be asked, 'What is the objective of planning?' The goal of our national planning is nowhere more clearly stated than in the preamble to the Constitution, in which the purposes of our political association are set forth: justice, domestic tranquility, common defense, general welfare and securing the blessings of liberty to ourselves and to our posterity."

"Democracy assumes that the gains of civilization are essentially mass gains, and should be enjoyed by the whole people who created them, rather than by special classes or persons. Our Government was set up for this purpose, and national planning should be directed toward this end."

"The sober fact is that in America, a new world is within our reach if we can organize and act to take possession of it. What stands between us and the realization of the hopes that gleamed before the eyes of our people from the earliest days are only our own attitudes and our social and political management." Chicago. ## Lupin or Dupin?

IN mentioning Lupin among the famous sleuths you would stick on the miscreant that swiped the Post-Dispatch dictionary, were you referring to that suave rogue, Arsene Lupin, gentleman burglar, master of disguise and constant biter of the agents de police? If you were, don't you think that Holmes, Philo Vance, Nick Charles and all the crowd would be mortified to find that Arsene, disguised in a Regie cigarette, a golf cap and a wisecrack, had sneaked in among 'em?

Or did you really mean Poe's uncanny Monsieur C. Auguste Dupin, and was it a case of the Post-Dispatch Editor that he did the lift of the D of the editor's writer's typewriter? Or did he top one fool deed with another and make off with your reference book? CAPTIOUS I.

What NRA Has Shown.

TO the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: NOW that the Blue Eagle has been treated to a fatal dose, it is well that we look back along the road we have traveled under its screeching leadership. The presumption was that America was not ready or willing to abandon its present economic system, neither was it necessary to do so, but that by the adoption of a code system bristling with persuasion, promises and threats, capitalism could again be made to function.

To say that the NRA failed to accomplish anything would be to deny that any diseased organism will respond to remedial treatment. The NRA afforded us ample opportunity to observe that a planned economy can no more function within a capitalist economy than order can be maintained in a dog fight. Capitalism depends for its existence upon the free play of competition stimulated by the profit motive. Free, competitive capitalism and co-operation are natural enemies. The NRA has demonstrated the impossibility of society, through its Government, controlling what society, through its Government, does not own.

No student of social economy doubts that we are bound for the co-operative commonwealth. The way is now open and clear. America need not waste through tyrannical Fascism or bloody revolution. WM. COX.

No Tennis at Tower Grove Park.

THE Park Department has refused to share part of the expense of the upkeep of the tennis courts at Tower Grove Park and, as a result, our permit fees have been refunded and we will not be allowed to play tennis during the coming season. We will be forced to buy permits from the Park Department for permission to play at parks miles away from our homes. We have only one day each week which we might devote to our beloved sport and now this only recreation has been taken away from us. We ask you, is there any justice?

HOW BOSSISM OPERATES.

The admission made by Boss Tom Pendergast in the matter of the proposed insurance compromise should serve to arouse the people of Missouri to a realization of what it means to have a State boss.

Pendergast did not deny to the French reporter who interviewed him when the Democratic leader was upon the point of sailing on the Normandie that he is the political boss of Missouri. He explained with considerable bravado that he does it by seeing from 300 to 500 people daily.

The boss also admitted to a Post-Dispatch reporter who saw him in New York that he gave the word for the insurance compromise by which policyholders would recover only 20 per cent of the money impounded by the courts pending decision in a rate increase. "Yes, I interested myself in the insurance compromise," he said. He talked to R. Emmett O'Malley, Superintendent of Insurance, and to Gov. Park.

Both owe their powerful offices to the Kansas City boss. Whatever he says to either on any public issue is to a degree mandatory. All such insurance funds present a great temptation. It was so with the $13,000,000 impounded under the rate reduction of 1922. In that case, the companies enjoined the State from putting a rate reduction into effect. In the 1930 case, they enjoined the State from interfering when they put a rate increase into effect.

The first fund tested the integrity of two State administrations. Gov. Caulfield said the attempt to compromise the matter and deprive the policyholders of money awarded them by the courts involved the sovereignty of the State. He refused to compromise, and at least most of that money has been returned to the policyholders. Pendergast was not the boss of Missouri then. The same people who wanted the compromise in the first instance want the compromise in the second.

There is no difference in principle between the two cases. In the 1920 case, the stock and fire insurance companies raised rates 162.3 per cent. When the State sought to restrain them, they resorted to injunction. Under the injunction, the excess premiums collected were impounded by the courts. They now total $11,000,000. Judge Nike Sevier of the Cole County Circuit Court, where some of this money is held, says the proposed compromise is not in the public interest, and he has ordered the excess premiums redistributed to the policyholders. The bulk of the money, or about $9,000,000, is impounded in the Federal courts at Kansas City.

We hope to see the courts uphold the sovereignty of the State. Judge Sevier points out that investigation has not borne out the claims of the companies. They do not need the rate increase to make a profit. They offer to reduce the rates if the compromise is made. They do not, however, propose to return the $11,000,000 to the policyholders. They propose to give them $2,200,000.

Obviously, no such surrender would be in the public interest. But it has behind it the powerful word of the boss. Do the people of Missouri want that kind of government? We cannot believe it.

OMAR D. GRAY.

Omar D. Gray, publisher of the Sturgeon Leader, who died Monday night, will be remembered for many engaging qualities and, most of all, for his gift of prophecy. His political prescience was uncanny. Back at the turn of the century, long before the convention met, he predicted the nomination and election of Joseph W. Folk, subsequently announced the nomination and probable election of Herbert Hadley, calmly assured his readers that Elliot Major would defeat the late Will Cowherd for the nomination in 1912, and when the Democratic organization had prepared a slate of its own, insisted that the nominee would be Frederick D. Gardner of St. Louis, whose only political activity up to that time had been as a member of the City Charter Committee. Always he read the stars aright. In his 66 years, it is doubtful if he ever knew a dull day. He found life a bright, captivating adventure. In his death, Missouri loses one of its widely known and widely liked men.

WATER AND LIFE.

As the drought ends over an area from Texas to Great Slave Lake, the fruitfulness of the earth revives. Correspondingly, relief decreases. It went down 3.6 per cent in April, and more than 4 per cent in May. At its height, the Federal Treasury was taking care of one-fifth the population. In the prairie provinces of Canada, the Government fed one-third of the people.

We are not the first generation to learn that without water there can be no life. The depression was unfortunate, but it was doubly unfortunate to have it accompanied by the worst drought of which the country has any record. From 1927 until 1935, the Mississippi River and its tributaries receded to new low-water marks. In the same period, the water table of the area over which the buffalo grazed went down in some places as much as 60 feet. In all agricultural regions the people subsist upon the soil. When the drought deprived our own people of this subsistence, it enormously complicated the most distressing period we have ever known in time of peace.

What wonder is it that political parties changed lots when such a staple food crop as corn was a virtual failure over a wide and fertile terrain? When cattle from the normally lush ranges of the Central West had to be moved to where there was grass? Scarcely has the dependence of any people upon their homeland been so cruelly disappointed as it has been for some years past over a one-time bountiful region that invited the pioneers. The joy of homesteading in the West, and the adventure of hewing out a place in the wilderness, once the lure of a new land, became a grim and grizzled jest in the drought.

There are reasons why industrial populations may have to be fed in part from time to time. They are inherent in the industrial system under which we live. There is no reason why the agricultural population of the country should ever have to be fed, except that now and then, by some strange whim of nature, there is no rain and the fruitful earth becomes barren. Prof. T. J. J. See, the astronomer, ascribes drought to the absence of spots on the sun, a theory vigorously combatted by a considerable body of science. His belief is that when these spots are absent, the heat of the sun deprives us of moisture. When the affliction is so long and pronounced as it has been of late, it also deprives the public treasury of a great deal of money. The cost of feeding 22,000,000 people, many of them victims of drought, was about two billion dollars a year.

Relief that the depression in the United States will cure itself is based in part upon the coincidence between drought and depression. They are historical allies. The present depression is so complicated by things undreamed of by its predecessors that only time can determine whether what has usually been true is to be true again.

What we can be sure of is that there is no life without water. The regions forsaken by moisture are also forsaken by man. If the drought is over, it will be good news to us all. It will be good news to Uncle Sam particularly, for it will diminish the number of his dependents.

AN EXAMPLE FOR THE HOUSE.

The 56-to-32 vote of the Senate in favor of the Wheeler-Rayburn bill providing for Federal regulation of holding companies of gas and electric utilities is a vote not only for the public interest but for the good of the utilities themselves.

The proposed legislation, which now awaits action in the Interstate Commerce Committee of the House, strikes at an abuse which has brought the utility business generally no end of criticism. It ought to be plain that in the long run the utilities stand to gain by the removal of that abuse.

The debate over the bill in the Senate was a heated affair and gave testimony to misunderstanding there just as there has been misunderstanding evidenced in the public discussion. Senator Dieterich of Illinois, who led the opposition, charged in effect that the bill was designed to destroy the utilities.

This, of course, is not true. The sponsors of the measure distinguish between those holding companies which serve a useful purpose and those which are created merely for rate-making, investment and other financial ends. President Roosevelt, who placed the measure on the list of "must" legislation, makes this same distinction.

In brief, the bill provides that, during a five-year probation period, it becomes the duty of the various utility holding companies to demonstrate that they either operate within the confines of a single state or that, if engaged in interstate business, they are necessary to integrate systems which are geographically unified. Any economically useful holding company should be able to do one or the other.

CONFESSION.

We knew that dire consequences would follow the theft of the Post-Dispatch's dictionary, and now it appears that a lamentable error occurred in the very editorial commenting upon the crime. In today's letter column, a correspondent points out that Maurice Leblanc's Arsene Lupin, whom, along with others, we would have dispatched on the culprit's trail, is not a detective, but a crook himself.

Our correspondent graciously suggests we had in mind Poe's Auguste Dupin. That would be an easy way out for us. But, cursed as we are with a Spartan sense of honor, we can only echo the words of the great Dr. Samuel Johnson. When asked by a woman why "pastern" was defined in his dictionary as "the knee of the horse," he replied, "Ignorance, madam, pure ignorance."

JAPAN MARCHES ON.

The restless imperialist ambitions of Japan, as dictated by the dominant military clique, are resulting in the piecemeal conquest of China, with seizures of additional territory every two years. In 1931, Manchuria (about 400,000 square miles) was overrun by Japanese forces, and set up as a dependent puppet state called Manchoukou. In 1933, the Province of Jehol (60,000 square miles) was added to Manchoukou. And now the Japanese military machine is pressing south of China's ancient defense, the Great Wall, to annex the Province of Hopei (115,800 square miles, including the former Chinese capital, Peking). So weakened is great, sprawling China that this latest conquest seems about to be accomplished with virtually no resistance or bloodshed. Or, in the polite Oriental phraseology, without rupturing the "friendly relations" between the two countries.

Japan's headlong course of conquest illustrates what happens in a country when the militarists gain control. The ultimatum to the Nanking Government was sent and the invasion launched without the knowledge of the Japanese Foreign Office. The charges against the Chinese are founded but slightly on fact. Many observers, in fact, have pointed out that China has scrupulously observed the demilitarized zone imposed upon the "demilitarized zone" which is now being overrun by Japan. Nor, even after Nanking has surrendered to the Japanese demands, can it be said that Tokyo's ambitions are satisfied. Inner Mongolia is expected to be the next zone of operations.

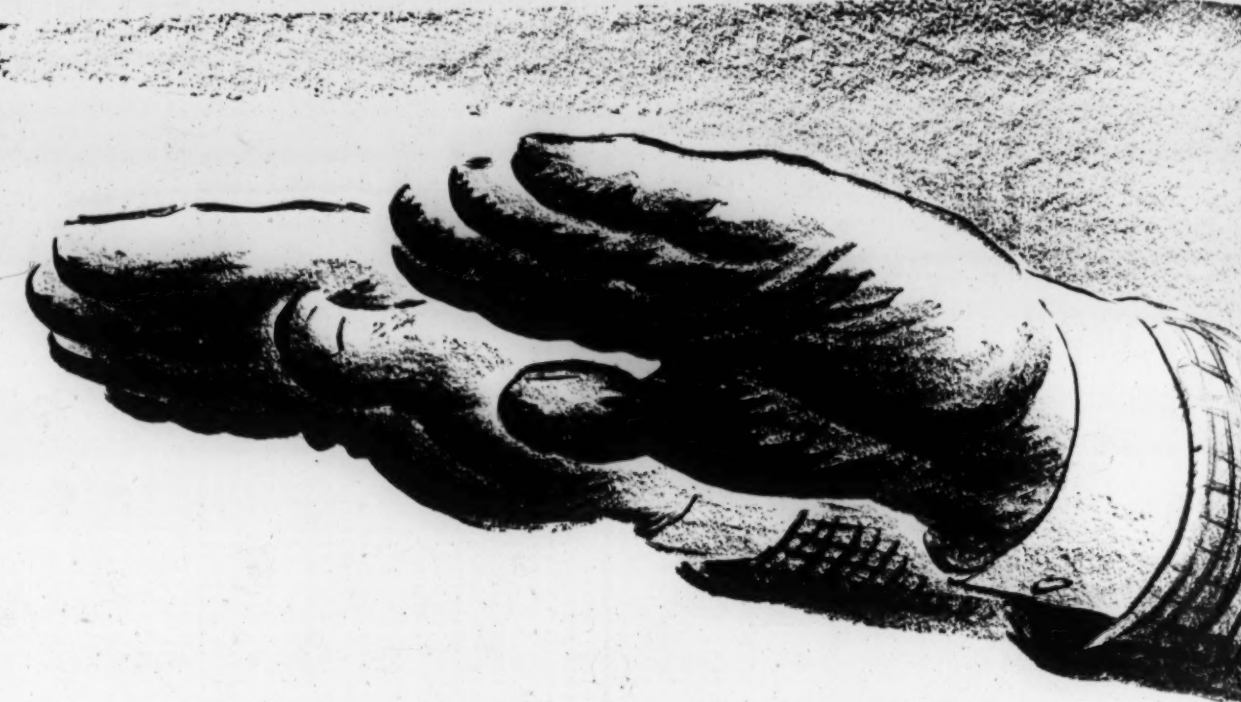

Japan pledged respect for China's territory and independence in the nine-Power pact of 1922, but there is no disposition by the other signatory nations to hold her to that promise. All are busy with troubles of their own. It is only rational that none so far has shown a disposition to sacrifice men and treasure in an Oriental war for the altruistic cause of saving China, or even for the selfish motive of preserving Chinese trade. The present powerlessness of international organization to cope with a deliberate violator of treaties is clearly shown. The dream of a "brotherhood of man," it is plain, is still remote. Only a great national resurgence in China, which seems equally remote, can undo Japan's conquest.

A question to be asked of future candidates for Congress: Have you read the Constitution?

CHOOSE A WORTHY SUCCESSOR.

For 61 years, the Southern Illinois State Normal University at Carbondale has been the center for imparting higher education and culture in a large area otherwise with little equipment to that important end. Founded as a teachers' college, it has also been a liberal arts college to meet the need for such an institution in the southern third of Illinois. Because of this, the selection of a successor to the late Henry William Shryock, for 22 years president of the college, is much more than the filling of a vacancy. The new president should be, like Mr. Shryock, a man of culture and perspective, who sees the educational administrator's office as a whole and understands its many ties with the broad community which it serves. Twice now the Illinois Normal School Board has postponed the meeting to choose the new president. Whether this bodes good or ill we do not know. If the best interests of Southern Illinois are being served, it means that an exhaustive search is being conducted and that the board is not yielding to the clamor of lesser candidates, who always seek advancement regardless of qualifications.

Now they're urging Lady Nancy for a place in the new British Cabinet. She'll be drinking her orange juice in Buckingham Palace yet.

WITH THE BLESSINGS OF BOSS PENDERGAST.

TODAY AND TOMORROW

By Walter Lippmann

The Return of Stanley Baldwin

NO other man in the United Kingdom could begin to command the confidence which Stanley Baldwin inspires at home and abroad. His devotion to democracy, the deep liberalism of his spirit, have been proved beyond all possible doubt. That he desires peace is certain. But where he has a peculiar advantage is that he has convinced so large a part of the world that he proposes to defend these ideals, not by complicated and clever maneuver, but by straightforward and firm action.

In view of the fact that the British Empire exercises the decisive influence in all the dangerous spots of the world, in Central Europe, in Eastern Asia and in Africa, it matters enormously whether British policy is clear and dependable or unclear and confusing.

Thus, it is generally recognized by most observers of foreign affairs that the chances of European peace depend fundamentally upon Anglo-French co-operation. With France and Britain united, France is sufficiently secure to make concessions to Germany; without the certainty of British support, France is not strong enough to risk concessions which strengthen Germany. When France and Britain are united, they constitute a bloc of power to which many other nations will adhere. The more of them that adhere, the smaller the field for intrigue to bring about disunion which would make aggression a good gamble. Nazi Germany will respect a united continent.

Therefore, anything which strengthens the understanding between Paris and London is favorable to peace. Anything which disunites Paris and London is unfavorable to peace. A complicated policy, such as that of the French, in which Britain would trade formulae with Germany and keep France on the anxious seat, could do nothing but promote intrigue.

The real defenders of the peace of Europe today are the men who have made up their minds that, come what may, they will stand together; that what they concede they will concede collectively and not by separate action; and that they will not be diverted by any temptation from the simple, fundamental idea that the way to keep the peace is to keep their united strength intact and definitely superior.

For though Herr Hitler now professes peace, and may really mean it, he is not a pacifist. He has never pretended to be a pacifist. He believes in force as the arbiter of issues. He respects force, and Europe will be a safe place as long as there is a force which he respects.

Because Mr. Baldwin is known to take some such simple and direct view of the situation, his return to power will inspire confidence.

As for the relations between Great Britain and the United States, it would be absurd to say that they are bad. The two peoples are not opposed to each other on any issue which could possibly be called serious. Yet Anglo-American relations ought to be better than they are. The world would be a much safer place to live in if the two governments understood each other more clearly and could, within their respective limitations, pursue parallel policies.

Looked at from the American point of view, the chief obstacle to a better understanding is the British procedure, based on long habit, of trying to stand in the middle of a situation and determine the balance of power. This was one of the chief reasons for the fiasco of collective action in the Manchurian affair. No one knew where Sir John Simon stood, and this uncertainty encouraged the Japanese to take risks, and encouraged us to take positions which neither might have taken had British policy been simpler and more direct.

The experience has taught the United States to dislike intensely any British disposition to act as intermediary, honest broker, arbiter or judge between Japan and the United States. The British interest in China is far greater than the American, and America does not desire to be maneuvered into a position where it opposes alone the Japanese advance, while Britain assumes the role of the friend of all concerned. This holds, too, in the question of naval armaments. The relative size of the Japanese navy is not solely a Japanese-American question; it is just as much a Japanese-British question. An international solution of the problems of the Pacific cannot be obtained if Britain pursues a policy of the balance of power.

Looked at from the British point of view, the chief obstacles to a better understanding are, first, our disposition to promise more than the Senate and public opinion will ratify, and, second, the injustice done to Great Britain in the war debt settlement. The first of these difficulties is inherent in any truly democratic control of foreign affairs. A democracy cannot negotiate, if it is to exercise control, it must, therefore, be the final judge as to whether it will ratify agreements that have been negotiated.

The system is inconvenient and it is confusing. Yet to any fair-minded person any other system would be a worse trouble. Absolutely certainly it will not be abandoned. The only possible remedy for its defects is such a clarification of American vital interests and purposes that no President will negotiate agreements that he is not certain to have ratified.

The second of the difficulties has never been fairly appreciated in the United States. Three countries—Britain, France and Italy—account for nine-tenths of the war debt. We settled with Italy at a rate of less than half of 1 per cent, with France at a rate of 1.35 per cent, with Great Britain at a rate of 3.13 per cent. To the British, and I think, to any fair-minded person anywhere, this was an injustice. It cannot be defended. Wholly apart from any question of whether it was wise to attempt to collect the war debts, it surely cannot have been wise to treat Britain so much less generously than the other debtors.

Probably it is best at the moment to let sleeping dogs lie, though if Congress had the courage and imagination to do it, a resolution extending the most-favored-nation principle to Great Britain as respects war debts might offer a way to settle an issue that continues to trouble the world. This may be more than Congress can hope to do now. But with the Asiatic question, the Philippine question, the naval question and the currency question ahead of us, it would help very greatly if at least we could make the British people feel that there is responsible opinion in America which understands their point of view. It might help to make them understand ours.

Why Bankers Are Fearful

From the Springfield (Mass.) Republic.

SAMUEL UNTERMYER has been fully digging up from the records of 1913 the statements of leading bankers and business men in violent opposition to the legislation that established the Federal Reserve System.

Gen. Dawes, then as now president of a bank in Chicago, declared at a Senate committee hearing: "The administration's plan of reforming the currency would be disastrous to the nation, would cripple the present national banking system and pave the way for panic."

President Frank A. Vanderlip of the National City Bank of New York testified the bill was so bad that there would be a "tremendous exodus of national banks from the system." That is, they would give up their national charters for state charters.

The railroad executive, James J. Hill, went to Washington full of protest because the bill was "too socialistic." The humor of such criticism is more discernible now than then. For one of the chief sponsors of the Federal Reserve bill of 1913 was Carter Glass, member of the House from Virginia.

Confronting prophets of ruin with their unfulfilled predictions has its amusing side, and it is also comforting to later reformers who incur criticism from the same sources of inert wisdom. Yet these citations prove nothing; neither are they convincing as to the later measures under consideration.

There is a clue, however, in the recent protests of bankers against new bank legislation to their underlying apprehension. The fact that leading bank presidents of 1913 bombarded Congress with severe criticism, and even with ridiculous forecasts of woes immeasurable, must have been the consequence of a deep-seated distrust which they would not openly define and acknowledge. The same distrust must largely account for the protests against the pending Eccles bill from leading bankers today.

Distrust and fear of political action is the root of the never-failing banker opposition to any important changes in the Federal banking laws. It crops out today as the most significant element in the banker criticism of the proposal to vest more power over the system in a reorganized Federal Reserve Board. Much of the criticism of the pending bill must seem substantial, or inconsistent with the soundest central-bank theory of a unified control of the money and credit policies of the nation, yet history furnishes the key to it.

From colonial times, the banker was up against monetary illiteracy among the people, and since Hamilton's first United States Bank, he has seen recurrent waves of demagogism run riot in connection with state banks and banknote issues. The Jacksonian war on the central bank, and the period of "wildcat" state banking that followed, filled the banking profession with a sense of political danger. This was established tradition that still survives.

The Eccles bill has some good points, but bankers cannot overcome their petty jealousy as they contemplate the further concentration of banking power in the Federal Reserve Board—which, in their view, must be the instrument of whatever administration may be in power. They would now take a much less alarmist view, they would have been far less disturbed in 1913, if our banking history had been less colored by the banking orgies made possible by the surrender of states' rights and by the surrender of generations of politicians. If there was one popular distrust of bankers, there was one equal validity, perhaps, in the banker's trust of political control.

The DAILY WASHINGTON MERRY GO ROUND

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON, June 12. THERE was nothing accidental about the recent flurry of public appearances and speeches of Herbert Hoover.

There were all carefully arranged and timed. Sources close to the former Republican President say that from now on he can be expected to perform in the limelight with increasing frequency and boldness.

Hoover, they declare, has decided to enter public life. Whether this means he has his cap set for another shot at the presidency, his friends are unable to say. They do, however, relate this significant fact.

The original manuscript of Hoover's book, published last year, was a statement that he was a candidate for the 1936 nomination.

But on the advice of Ogden L. Taft, Secretary of the Treasury, Hoover's Cabinet, and several other close political advisers, Hoover eliminated the declaration.

Strange Interlude.

REPRESENTATIVE JOHN J. McSWAIN recently had an interesting experience in one of the most-famous corridors of the Capitol.

The tall, distinguished-looking South Carolinian was hurrying through the corridors, deeply engrossed in his thoughts, when he encountered a heavy of schoolgirls escorted by a professional guide.

McSwain started to apologize, when the guide, seizing the opportunity to show off his familiarity with the building, broke in with a loud voice.

"Ladies, meet Representative Robert L. Doughton of your home State, North Carolina."

The smartly-attired miss tilted her head and looked at McSwain. The name is McSwain, John J. McSwain, he corrected in an unassuming voice.

"Of course, excuse me," the guide said. "Representative John J. McSwain of North Carolina, chairman of the Committee on Education."

"I am a mistake," said the guide, "I am wholly unperturbed, of South Carolina, chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee."

McSwain corrected McSwain for the second time. "Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee."

"I beg your pardon, Congressmen," the guide pleasantly said. "Chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee and a member of the Committee for the past 12 years."

"I am a mistake," said the guide, "I am wholly unperturbed, of South Carolina, chairman of the House of Representatives Ways and Means Committee."

McSwain corrected McSwain for the second time. "Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee."

McSwain corrected McSwain for the second time. "Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee."

Also, in order to give them discretionary power to raise or lower taxes, they propose an amendment authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to take such action according to expressly stated standards.

Warning.

RESIDING officers at public meetings are warned to be careful of their introductions. Representative Maury Maverick of Texas or Vito Marcantonio of New York. The two scrappy leaders of the House liberal bloc are very outspoken young men.

Maury and Vito were speakers at separate gatherings in New York City a few days ago. By coincidence both administered sharp verbal spankings to their introducers at about the same time.

At Maverick's meeting, his introducer eloquently presented him as "the Congressman from the Twentieth District of Mexico."

It happens that Maverick stems from an old Texas family. His grandfather was a signer of the Texas Declaration of Independence. So he preceded his remarks with the following:

"It is high time that you Easterners realized that the country is not bounded by the Hudson River. Texas is not in Mexico. It was once, but it won its independence and then presented itself to the United States. Keep that in mind if you presented yourself without charge."

Marcantonio staged a snapper spectacle. His meeting was an American Legion affair at which were present a large number of Italian ex-servicemen. In presenting Marcantonio the presiding officer flamboyantly announced that "we want no more hyphenated Americans."

Marcantonio also hit the rostrum running.

"You have just heard one of these shirts denounce 'hyphenated Americans.' Well, I am a hyphenated American and so are millions of other good, loyal, honest Americans. These swivel-chair heroes who have only hearsay knowledge of gunpowder seem to forget that the World War veterans we are gathered here to honor were only 'hyphenated Americans.'"

Having thus declared himself, Marcantonio strode off the platform to the cheers of the assembled veterans.

Merry-Go-Round.

DETECTING the germs on toothpicks is a job the Bureau of Public Health will not undertake for any chance passerby. When a Maine manufacturer of toothpicks, fighting foreign competition, sent to the Bureau's Foreign Quarantine Division two cartons of Japanese toothpicks, hoping to establish that they were packed under insanitary conditions, the bureau shied off, declared they would do the germ hunting only on request of the Tariff Commission.

Hazel H. Whitaker and Kate Young were classmates in college 25 years ago. Before they became, respectively, Mrs. Arthur H. Vandenberg, wife of the junior Senator from Michigan and Mrs. Henry M. Kamm, wife of the Congressman from Kalama.

While Moore is a guest of the other day, the pounding of the gavel kept time to the grind of his jaws. Though Congress is under pressure to put through important pending legislation, the House had an afternoon of only 46 members one afternoon last week and adjournment was taken at 2:45.

It also was announced by Rohrbough that a campaign for general improvements in the school has been started, seeking $25,000.

All these attempts to pick up the pieces of the shattered Blue Eagle are like Abraham Lincoln's dog. A man was killing fish by throwing hand grenades into a pond. A little boy's retriever joyously leaped in and brought the bomb out in his mouth. On the bank it exploded. After tearfully gathering up and trying to put the pieces together, the little lad comforted himself with this philosophy:

WOMEN'S CONVENTION URGES BIRTH CONTROL

Federation of Clubs Votes, 493 to 17 for Dissemination of Scientific Information.

By the Associated Press. DETROIT, June 12.—The General Federation of Women's Clubs declared yesterday in what delegates termed the most radical action since it gave support to suffrage, for dissemination of birth control information through scientifically regulated sources.

A resolution was adopted asserting that "it is of utmost importance to all Americans that the population of our country be vigorous and healthy both mentally and physically, and that proper and intelligent use of scientific contraceptive methods under direction of qualified and reputable physicians is essential to these ends." The vote was 493 to 17.

Opposition came chiefly from delegates who held the information should be restricted to married persons or those contemplating marriage, and should be disseminated by "family physicians."

World Court Indorsed.

A declaration for World Court adherence, which most of the affiliated clubs previously had approved by proxy, aroused more debate than the birth control question. Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley of Washington offered an amendment that would have placed the Federation on record as having urged "that the code of law to be administered by the World Court shall not contain any inequalities based on sex."

Her proposal was dismissed hastily for half an hour. Finally Miss Avis Long of St. Louis gained the floor and diverted attention back to the World Court. "It seems far more important," she said, "to protect the rights of women and their families than to raise the question of rights. Man and woman suffers just the same during war."

The amendment was defeated, 142 to 256, but the resolution itself was adopted by an overwhelming vote.

An anti-lynching resolution, asking state organizations to support an educational campaign against lynching, met slight opposition and only four votes were recorded against it.

Other Resolutions.

The Federation also adopted resolutions condemning communism and Fascism, urging state support of cancer control projects, advocacy of Federal aid for child welfare, calling for study of an amendment which would give residents of the District of Columbia the same rights in court as citizens of states, and declaring for democratic government.

In a run-off election Mrs. John S. Harvey of Huntington, W. Va., defeated Mrs. J. L. B. Buck of Richmond, Va., for secretary of the Federation.

IGOR SIKORSKY PARTNER DIES

Charles P. Dickinson, Formerly in Plane Firm, Succumbs.

BOSTON, June 12.—Charles P. Dickinson, utility man and partner of Igor Sikorsky in the manufacture of airplanes, died yesterday at Massachusetts General Hospital at the age of 81.

He built four dams and power plants on Rondout River in the Catskill Mountains of New York, supplying Kingston, Newburgh and Poughkeepsie with power. His firm, the Honk Falls Power Co., was for many years the only "one-man" owned utility in the business, but after 24 years of exclusive ownership he sold the company to the Central Hudson Gas and Electric Co. in 1929.

Later, with his son, Arnold Dickinson, he entered partnership with Sikorsky, the Russian inventor and aeronautical engineer, and with him organized the Sikorsky Airplane Co. at Roosevelt Field, L. I. Dickinson retired from the business in 1929.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

THE Church of the Ascension was decorated with lilies and white larkspur against greenery for the wedding yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock of Miss Bodine Keene Forder, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carver Forder, 7042 Delmar boulevard, and Dr. Samuel Arthur MacDonald, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Angus MacDonald of Prince Edward Island. The Rev. Dr. John S. Bunting officiated.

Clusters of acclamation lilies and sprays of white larkspur adorned the altar which was lighted by white cathedral tapers. The choir stalls were concealed by foliage and two tall standards of white blossoms marked the entrance to the chancel.

A resolution was adopted asserting that "it is of utmost importance to all Americans that the population of our country be vigorous and healthy both mentally and physically, and that proper and intelligent use of scientific contraceptive methods under direction of qualified and reputable physicians is essential to these ends." GRAHAM MEMORIAL CHAPEL. On Washington University campus will be the scene this evening of the wedding of Miss Florence Richardson Usher, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Roland G. Usher, and William Walcott Lord, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Anderson Lord of Woburn, Mass. Heretofore marriages have been forbidden in the university chapel, except in the interim of 1928 and 1929 when it was used for services by the Church of St. Michael and St. George.

The Rev. Dr. Donald McFayden of the history department of the university and the Rev. John S. Bunting will perform the ceremony at 6 o'clock. To a Bach fugue, played at the conclusion of an all-Bach program by G. Calvin Ringenberg, organist of the university, the bride will walk down the aisle on the arm of her father, who will give her in marriage. Palms and flame-colored gladioli will decorate the chancel and conceal the organ.

The bride will be gowned in crepe, of an off-white shade, embroidered with silver and gold threads. Two starched panels on either side of the close-fitting skirt extend from the hem in front up over the hips and are caught at the waist in back with a rhinestone and silver clasp. Stiffened inserts above the elbow give fullness to the sleeves which cover the hands in points. The gown is fashioned with a square neck in front and cut to a low V, softened by revers, at the back. A tulle veil, gathered into a halo of gardenias, extends beyond the long train. The bride's only jewelry will be a jade and carnelian bracelet of mandarin buttons, which was the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund H. Sears upon her graduation from Mary Institute. Her bouquet will be of white Canterbury bells with red tips.

Miss Dorothea Richardson Usher, her sister's only attendant, will wear a dress of yellow silk, figured with tiny white and red rosebuds. Three circular flounces form the demi-train of the gown which is made with a square neck in front and a V to the waistline at the back, where it is accented with a large bow of fuchsia taffeta. She will wear a pendant of garnets and brilliants which was her grandmother's and carry apricot roses and blue delphinium.

The bride's mother will wear embroidered crepe in pastel shades. She will wear a necklace of aquamarine crystals, a gift to her when she made her debut, and a shoulder corsage of yellow orchids.

Mrs. Lord will be attired in fuchsia chiffon made with long draped sleeves and a boat neck back and front. It will be relieved by a rhinestone ornament at the narrow belt and a white orchid, with fuchsia center, at the shoulder.

J. Anderson Lord will be best man for his son. The groomsmen will be brothers of the bride, Roland G. Usher Jr. and Richardson Usher, and her cousin, Osgood Peckham, son of Mrs. Frank Peckham of Asheville, N. C.

Weather permitting, the bridal party will greet friends at the chapel entrance after the ceremony, before the formal reception for about 200 guests at the Usher home, 5539 Cates avenue. Shrubs, larkspur and gladioli in shades of pink will be used to decorate the home.

The bride, who is a graduate of Mary Institute and Radcliffe College, received her master's degree in history at Washington University yesterday. Her father has been in the history department of the university for many years. She is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Florence Wyman Richardson and the late James Richardson, one of the founders of the Symphony Society. Mrs. Richardson's father was Edward Wyman, for whom the Wyman School was named, and the founder of the Wyman School for Boys, which later became Western Military Academy. Frank Wyman, former postmaster of St. Louis, and Dr. Walter Wyman, Surgeon-General of the United States Marine Hospital, were great-uncles of the bride.

Mr. Lord prepared at Phillips Andover Academy for Harvard College from which he was graduated in the class of 1928. He will take his bride to Woburn, where he has leased a house for the summer.

His parents will remain in St. Louis for an indefinite stay with Dr. and Mrs. Usher.

The wedding of Miss Alice Franc, daughter of Mrs. Harry L. Franc, of the Park Plaza, and the late Mr. Franc, to Edward Greensfelder, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Greensfelder, 23 Southmoor, took place at 8 o'clock last night at the Savoy Plaza Hotel, New York. The ceremony, at which the Rev. Dr. Jonah B. Wise of the Central Synagogue, New York, officiated, was attended only by members of the immediate families and a few close friends. A dinner followed at the hotel.

Harry L. Franc Jr. of St. Louis gave his sister in marriage. The bride was attended by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry L. Franc Jr., and wore a princess gown of white satin, with long fitted sleeves, high neckline and a long train, which formed part of her skirt. Her voluminous veil of tulle was fashioned to shape her cap and she carried a bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor was gowned in champagne green chiffon and carried a bouquet of white African daisies, bound with a satin ribbon to match her gown. Richard Weil, of St. Louis, a cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man.

The pair sailed at noon today aboard the President Roosevelt. They plan to motor through England and Scotland. After their return, around the middle of August, they will live in St. Louis, where the bridegroom is a member of the law firm of Greensfelder and Grand.

The ceremony was performed before an improvised altar banked with white flowers, among those attending, in addition to Mrs. Franc, were Mr. and Mrs. Greensfelder, were the following from St. Louis: Mrs. M. J. Ehrlich, the bride's grandmother; Mrs. Hattie Lohbe, the bride's aunt; Mr. and Mrs. Sol Ross and Maurice Weil, the bridegroom's aunt and uncle, and Mrs. Richard Weil.

The bride, who is a graduate of John Burroughs School, was graduated from Vassar College Monday. Mr. Greensfelder was graduated from Washington University in 1928.

Miss Dorothy Grote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Grote, 27 Windermere place, will have as her guest next week Miss Nell Winship of Atlanta, Ga., her roommate last year at Sweet Briar College in Virginia. Miss Winship will arrive June 20. Miss Grote visited her in Atlanta during the last spring vacation. Miss Grote will be presented to society in the fall.

'CAT EYE ANNIE' BACK IN CITY FOR TRIAL

Notorious Jewel Thief Identified in $5000 Robbery Here in 1922.

Lillian McDowell—"Cat Eye Annie"—to police—one of the rogues' gallery's better known woman jewel thieves, who has checked in and out of half a dozen prisons since her first arrest in St. Louis 25 years ago, was back at police headquarters today to await trial for a theft here in 1922.

She was identified by Mr. and Mrs. George C. Mackay, 3693 Lindell boulevard, as the maid who locked Mrs. Mackay in a closet and fled with $5000 worth of jewelry two days after she was employed.

Her hair, dark at 40, at 53 is streaked with gray. Wrinkles furrow her face and her step no longer has the lightness which enabled her to elude police for a few years between prison terms.

Two Old Characteristics. Only two characteristics were preserved as she sat in her cell, clad in tweed skirt, green sweater and black hat, meditating as she smoked a cigarette. One was her left eye, origin of her sobriquet slate-blue like the right, but with a bar of golden brown extending from the iris across the white.

The other was her taciturnity as she parried questions with the old grin, a bit harder than in other years, but still not unlike that of a Cheshire cat.

However, "Cat Eye Annie" lost her reserve when she was taken before Chief of Detectives Carroll for questioning. Mrs. Mackay was hopeful that some jewelry, prized as heirlooms, still might be recovered.

The prisoner stared at Carroll with determination, refusing to answer any questions. At length she broke into tears, covered her face and declared she remembered nothing since she "became insane in Auburn prison."

"I never was in St. Louis in my life," she answered finally.

But Bertillon records and old police reports are contradictory. According to them, a four-year chase by private detectives ended here in 1910 when St. Louis detectives arrested her for the first time in her career. The peculiar left eye then became a part of identification records.

She was charged with taking $3000 worth of jewelry from the home of Mrs. Henry B. Collins at 14 Hortense place in 1905, but the statute of limitations freed her. Mrs. Joseph B. Hayes, 4389 Lindell boulevard, had been robbed of jewelry valued at $2000 in 1906, and after two juries had disagreed, the charge was dropped. A jury acquitted her of the $6000 jewel robbery at the home of H. Chouteau Dyer, 9 Lenox place, which had taken place in 1907.

How She Operated.

In each case the robberies had been followed by the disappearance of "Cat Eye Annie," who had been employed not long before.

The same technique with little variation has been followed by her through the years. Registering at a fashionable hotel, she would advertise for a maid and keep the letters of recommendation from applicants, presenting them as her own in answer to advertisements for maids.

After her trials in St. Louis, however, she was sent to Chicago, and in April, 1911, was sent to the Joliet prison for a $3250 theft. Later she served time in Ohio. Arrested again in Milwaukee, she was sent to Buffalo, N. Y., for a $75,000 jewel robbery.

Jumping from a window in the Sheriff's office, she sprained her ankle and soon was caught. She was sent to Auburn prison for 10 years. There she dug a hole in the brick wall of her cell with a spoon and obtained one day of freedom and a two-year extension of her term.

Released from Auburn last February, she was convicted and paroled in Baltimore and acquitted in Boston but police of three other cities wanted her. St. Louis had wanted 13 years.

Detective Lieut. Thomas Hunt and Policewoman Elva Braun returned with her from Boston last night.

THEFT SUSPECT SHOT TO DEATH

Man Wanted in Chicago, Kankakee, Trapped and Killed in Shed.

By the Associated Press. CHICAGO, June 12.—Leo Kuich, who police said was wanted for questioning in a Kankakee, Ill., killing during the attempted holdup of a drug store and for more than 200 store robberies on Chicago's North Side in the Irving Park and Cragin districts, was shot to death by officers last night on a farm near Arlington Heights.

Kuich, armed with an automatic pistol, broke away from a squad in a tavern and took refuge in a shed on the farm of Frank Scharringhausen. Officers surrounded the place, trained flashlights through the doorway and shot Kuich as he arose from behind a wood pile.

MAN DROWNED WHILE WADING

William Daniels, Negro, Loses Life in River at Talcott Avenue.

William Daniels, 36-year-old Negro, was drowned while wading in the Mississippi River at the foot of Talcott avenue yesterday afternoon.

Daniels, who lived in a shack on the levee, sank before companions could aid him. The body was recovered half an hour later in 10 feet of water.

KENTUCKY NEGRO SAVED FROM LYNCHING

Town Marshal and Doctor Persuade Mob to Give Up Youth It Seized.

By the Associated Press.

MUNFORDVILLE, Ky., June 12.—Saved from lynching after a band of 30 men had him perched on a shaky bedstead with a noose ready, Raymond Curry, 19-year-old Negro, was in jail at Elizabethtown today awaiting trial on a charge of attempting to assault Mrs. Esther Jolly, 18, bride of two months.

Town Marshal Burt Hodges and Dr. Maher Speevack of Munfordville rescued the Negro from the barn of Henry Jolly, the victim's father-in-law, where the men had made ready for a hanging.

Marshall Hodges and Dr. Spe-

vack argued that the men could not be positive they had the right man, because Mrs. Jolly had not made an identification. They suggested that a wrench with which the attacker struck his victim be taken to Munfordville for fingerprint identification, and that the law be permitted to take its course.

The arguments of Hodges and Dr. Speevack were backed up by Ernest O. Douthett, a railroad detective, who helped to get the Negro out of the barn and to the Munfordville jail. A crowd of about 150 persons, apparently more curious than aroused to violence, gathered at the jail. Later Jailer Mack Boyd and other officers had the Negro change clothes and took him for safekeeping to Elizabethtown, in nearby Hardin County.

Wife Sues Dentist. Mrs. Naomi Pfeiffer filed suit yesterday to divorce Dr. G. Edwin Pfeiffer, a dentist, with offices at 3130 South Grand boulevard, alleging indignities. She charged he was faultfinding and that he frequently absented himself from home until late hours. They were married in 1927 and separated last Friday. Mrs. Pfeiffer asked for restoration of her maiden name of Craig and $50 a month alimony.

Lecturer Files in Bankruptcy. NEW HAVEN, Conn., June 12.—

Grant Carveth Wells, lecturer and traveler, has filed a bankruptcy petition here in which he reported his assets at $4.59 and his debts at $11,350.02. Among his creditors is Mrs. Luard T. Wells of New York, the explorer's first wife, to whom he owes $2000. She recently won a $5000 judgment in her $50,000 alienation of affections suit against Mrs. Zetta Robert Wells of Wilton, Wells' present wife.

A stipulation agreed to by the Insurance Superintendent as to the method of making refunds of excess premiums.

The Supreme Court, in an opinion by Chief Justice William F. Frank, said:

"The Superintendent of Insurance is a public official and represents the policyholders by virtue of his office and the laws defining his duties. His only authority in that behalf was to get for the policyholders their rights under the law. Neither he nor the attorneys representing him had authority to stipulate away any lawful right of the policyholders concerning the refund or consent to the making of a court order that would have that effect."

Decision Stands Unchanged.

Attorneys who have made a study of the decision in the litigation say this definition of the powers of the Insurance Superintendent has not been changed in any subsequent rulings. While the ruling is in connection with a suit brought out of the 1922 reduction of rates, it is equally applicable, it is said, to other cases which followed the 1922 litigation.

The O'Malley compromise, terms of which were first made public by the Post-Dispatch, has encountered several obstacles as Superintendent O'Malley, his special counsel and representative of the insurance companies have sought to put it through to approval by the courts.

History of the Case.

Attorneys for the companies last May 23 in Cole County Circuit Court filed an amended petition, embodying the principal terms of the compromise, as part of a suit by 73 of the companies for review of an order by former Insurance Superintendent Joseph B. Thompson, in May, 1930, denying the 16-2-3 per cent increase. After that denial the companies forced the higher rates into effect. June 1, 1930, under protection of Federal court temporary injunctions, and have been collecting the higher rates since that time.

Circuit Judge Niles Sevier peremptory orders to file the amended petition, without reading it. The same day, after reading it, he announced in open court that he was striking it from the docket, and at the same time Judge Sevier disposed of the policyholders' holding in favor of the policyholders on every point involved, notwithstanding the plans of their representatives to compromise. He dismissed their request for an increase, ordered return to the policyholders of $1,750,000 of excess premiums, representing the increase which had been impounded. The companies appealed to the Supreme Court.

The Proposed Compromise.

The State Insurance Department and insurance company attorneys now plan, as has been told, to submit a stipulation, in the form of a compromise, entered into by the companies and the Insurance Superintendent, on June 22, to a three-judge Federal Court in Kansas City, before which are pending 137 many different companies, to enforce the higher rates.

Of the $1,000,000 in impounded premiums, $1,750,000 is in custody of the Circuit Court here and the remainder in the Federal Court. The proposed compromise would give the policyholders only 20 per cent of the $1,000,000. The companies would receive 50 per cent of the $1,000,000. The companies' commissions, estimated at 22 to 25 per cent of the whole, 200,000, would be turned over to representatives of the companies, from which the two trustees would pay fees of both the company and State's counsel—placed at $500,000 for company counsel—court costs, other expenses of the litigation and agreed to by Superintendent O'Malley, none of the actual distribution of the impounded funds, nor paid by the courts, would be under the direction of the courts which have jurisdiction over the suits.

The plan provides for the custodians to pay over to Superintendent O'Malley the 20 per cent for make the refunds. They would pay the 50 per cent for the companies to company representatives, the 30 per cent for the lawyers, would be paid over to R. J. Foliole of Chicago, chief counsel for the companies, and Charles R. Street, trustee representing the companies. Provision is made for accounting for disbursements of the latter fund to the companies, but not to the court or to the State.

Cost to the Policyholder.

Under the compromise the policyholder, in addition to losing 80 per cent of the excess premiums paid to pay an increase in rates.

As a part of the agreement Superintendent O'Malley last May 21 entered an order granting the companies four-fifths of the present increase of 13.3 per cent, and attempted to make this order retroactive to June 1, 1930, when the rates started.

This 13.3 per cent order, it was explained by Superintendent O'Malley, was made for the purpose of the settlement. It apparently is a move to justify the impounded premiums.

After the settlement goes through, if it does, the companies will file a new schedule of rates. Gov. Park said, which will bring the 16-2-3 rates.

CITY OFFICIALS CONFER ON PWA FUND OUTLOOK

Mayor and 12 Aldermen Hear Federal Engineers on Possibilities in St. Louis.

Prospects of obtaining money for public improvements here from the new Federal public works fund were discussed at a meeting with Mayor Dickmann yesterday. City officials, William M. Spann, State engineer for the PWA, and W. W. Horner, consulting engineer for the city and member of the national PWA Technical Board of Review, were present.

Horner explained that, in addition to approval by the PWA and the President's Works Advisory Board, proposed work will be passed by the Federal Relief Administration. The Government, he continued, has insisted that the average pay under the new plan may not exceed an average of $140 a year per man. This, he said, might cause difficulties on jobs requiring much skilled labor. He added that the $250,000,000 allocated nationally for grade crossing eliminations might not afford much expenditure for heavy steel and concrete structures, in view of the administration's desire to get the maximum of employment from the fund.

Mayor Dickmann asked what effect the new rules would have on the proposed river-front memorial. Horner said it had been understood exemptions would be made from the labor requirements in specific worthy cases. Spann added that the application for funds for the memorial had been turned over to his office, and that architects representing the civic group fostering the memorial had estimated that $12,000,000 could be spent in the first year for labor in wrecking present structures on the site, building foundations and other activities.

President Mason of the Board of Aldermen remarked that the city should be sure of where it stood in the proposal before the election on a $7,500,000 bond issue for the site in September.

The city should do everything in its power to take advantage of Federal grants under the original PWA plan under which it has not already started or finished work, said President Brown of the Board of Public Service. He was of the opinion that the city could gain more comparatively under the old grants of 30 per cent of cost than under new ones, which might amount to 45 per cent, because of the varying labor rates.

Dickmann declared the discussion showed the necessity of passing public improvement bills which he urged the Board of Aldermen to adopt last week.

The conference also took up a proposal by Director of Streets and Sewers McDevitt to seek a $2,300,000 fund to employ 2000 men in resurfacing 75 miles of streets with asphalt.

The 12 members of the minority of the Board of Aldermen who have been friendly with the Mayor, attended this conference instead of a caucus called by the unfriendly majority, to which they had been invited.

Most Cruel Killer.
Paroles and Ransom
Money.
Vincent Astor's Hotel.
Mr. Kissell Drinks Wine.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

CHICAGO reports the most cruel cold-blooded murder of the week. Cecelia Venable, red-haired night club entertainer, aged 27, registered at a hotel as Mrs. J. Williams. Awakened at daylight by a gunman who had forced the clerk to take him to the room and open it, she asked after he had slapped her face brutally: "Tony, how did you get in here?"

His answer was: "Why did you run out on me last night?" "I didn't want to go with you," the woman said. "I haven't got anything you want, and you haven't got anything that I want."

Tony drawing a pistol, said: "But I've got something here you're going to get," and fired several bullets into her body as she pulled the sheet over her face. When all the bullets were fired the unfortunate woman pleaded, moaning: "You've hurt me enough already, please don't shoot again. Please, Tony, get a doctor."

Tony ejected the used shells, re-loaded the pistol, fired four more bullets into her body and left her dead.

Who can understand such horrible brutality and why is there any hesitation about eliminating permanently all criminals of this kind? If Tony is arrested will some warring parole board let him go after six months?

Waley, the Weyerhaeuser kidnaper, caught after he sent his wife like a true gangster coward, to change ransom bills for him, has this record:

He had been arrested six times beginning at 18 and sentenced to terms in prison that would have kept him in prison for 75 years if parole boards had allowed it.

He was repeatedly released until at last, thoroughly trained in crime and convinced probably, as he might well be, that American justice is a mere joke, he went to Tacoma and planned there the "snatch," as criminals call it, of the Weyerhaeuser child.

Mahan, another kidnaper, who shopped more than $15,000 of the ransom money and is now hunted by Government agents was convicted, paroled, convicted again and again released.

The national government will not be able to execute the Weyerhaeuser kidnappers under the "Lindbergh law," because the Weyerhaeuser law was not taken out of the state in which he was captured. However, that state provides death as the penalty for kidnapping, and the State of Washington probably will impress on these kidnappers and others that Washington is a dangerous state in which to operate.

Waley who says he divided the ransom money with William Mahan and was "short-changed" to the tune of $5000, got about half, and had spent only $300 when his wife was caught, thanks to the quick wit of Edythe Morley and Marion Samuel, two girls employed in a Salt Lake chain store.

That ransom money did not do for Mr. Waley the wonderful things he expected. He spent only $200 in fear of arrest, and for that he probably will pay with his life.

Mr. Vincent Astor of New York bought in, and will operate, the St. Regis Hotel on Fifth avenue, built originally with Astor money, now repurchased for $5,090,000.

An Astor running a hotel is nothing new. You need not be very, very old to remember the gray Ritz "Astor House" a block long almost opposite the City Hall on lower Broadway, where they had just beef such as you find nowhere else.

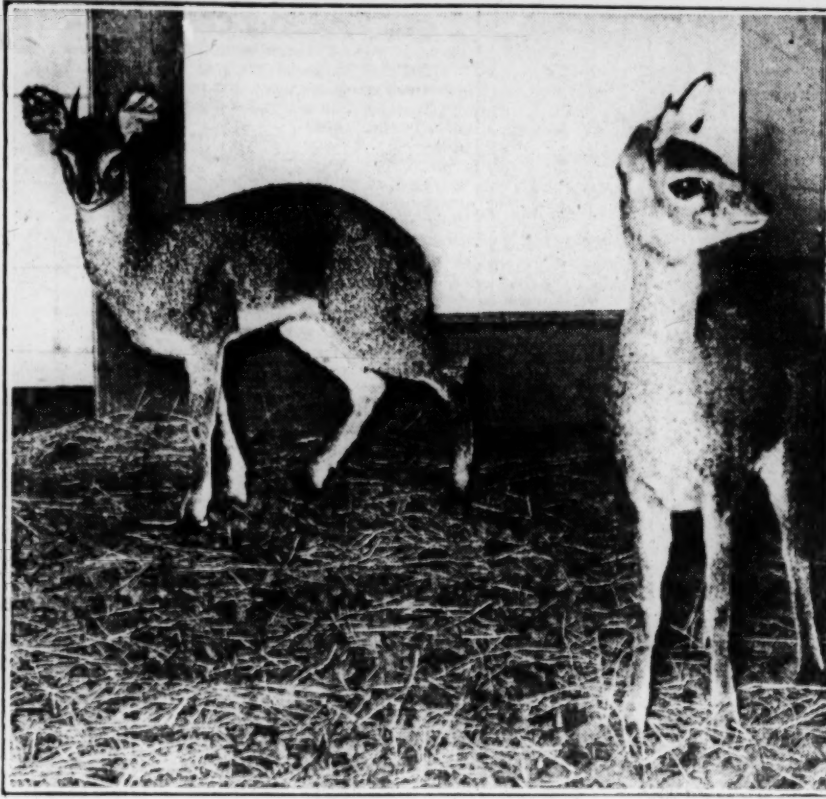

Before prosperous Americans turned to be really "aristocratic," with yachts, race horses and divas, they thought owning a hotel and putting their name on it was almost aristocratic. The Astor House and the Brevoort House, in New York, the Palmer House in Chicago, the Coates House in Kansas City, a thousand others prove it.

Louis Kissell, 80 years old, who fought in the Franco-Prussian War 40 years ago, was attacked by a robber, who struck him down with a club. Mr. Kissell got up, beat the robber severely, pursued him down the street.

When reporters wanted to take his picture, Mr. Kissell asked: "What's all this nonsense for? It's nothing. I am strong; I drink pure, own wine." He makes the wine himself, from grapes.

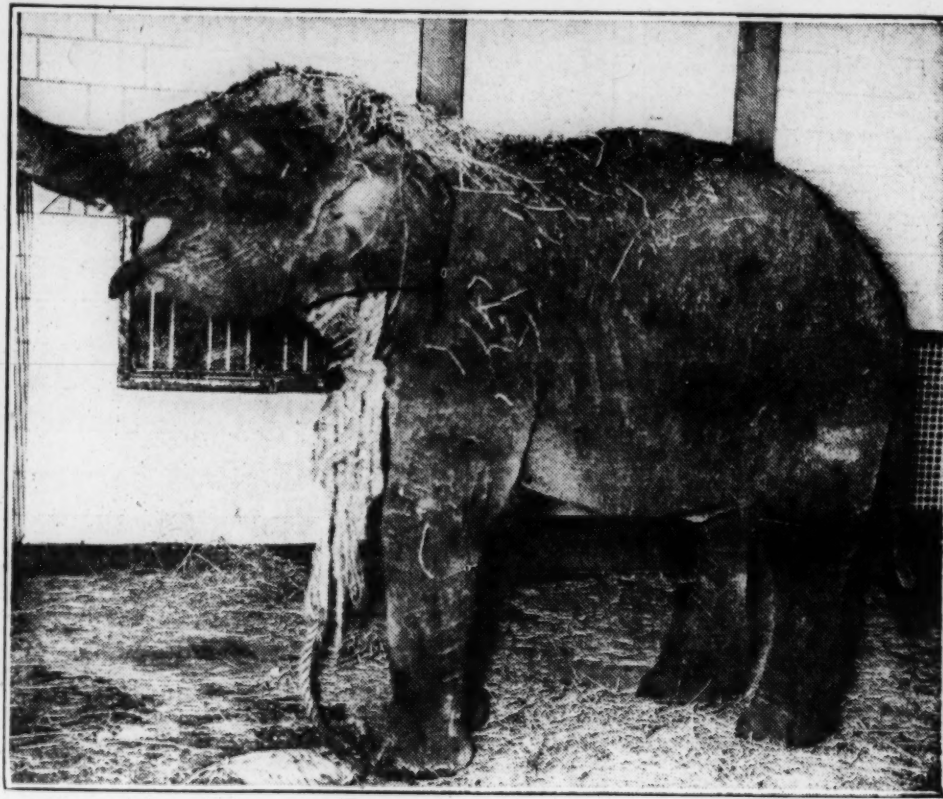

Louis Kissell says Von Hinden-

On Broadway

By Walter Winchell

Dear W. W.:
PERHAPS I'm a conclusion jumper, but all that front-page to-doodle the other day about Count Covadonga and his new bride "hoping for a reconciliation" was darn good exploitation for the new perfume that will bear his titled name. . . . The Noel Scaffa arrest was over the confessions of the Florida lads who were caught in that gem robbery. It looks sour for several well-knowns around town, I hear. . . . Several editors have been submitting pieces by their reporters. What do you plan to do? Print them or mention them? . . . Don Bestor's crew, their press agent asserts, will get $10,000 for one night's engagement in Nome, Alaska. For a miners' convention. . . . Harold Stern says he understands the liner Normandie is using the war debt as an anchor. . . .

Marion Dix on the Coast isn't thinking of wedding bells. Two of the biggies out there are making it very pleasant, however. . . . Barbara Hutton's groom doesn't own it, if you care. . . . Frank Connolly, the NBC exec, and Mary Burns (she's the girl in the phone ads) will marry on the 19th. . . . Gordon and Revel have hit the bell again in their newest flick with such dummies as "Bon Jour, Mamouzelles." Why do they call it "Gay Paces" and "Paris in the Spring" all this? . . . Incidentally, "Chasing Shadows" has sold 250,000 copies, they say, and is still going wild. And although one of the first big six hit song, the trade paper lists didn't even mention it until this week. . . .

It looks like the war between the hotels and the musicians will run any day. That $3 tax per man didn't sell. It is thought, too, that another three months of no broad-casting for many orchestras will ruin their value for the touring of provinces. . . . His friends suspect that if Mickey Albert didn't marry Kathryn Ryan, he would be selling momentarily. . . . Nan Blackstone's former booking agent here has gone to the courts over commission arrears. . . . Saw Charles Ryan of the Fred Waring program. Still pining for "Blacks" wife, and he is trying so hard to win her back. . . . Sylvia Lent, the concert violinist, and Alfred Frankenstein, the San Francisco music critic, were married at Washington the other week-end. . . .

Hope Hampton is getting the break she's wanted. She has been signed to warble "Mamouzelles" and "Paris in the Spring" at the Chicago Opera next season. Merna Pace, the ingenue in the naughty show "Personal Appearance," is the child of Dr. C. N. Pace, a Methodist clergyman and president of the Hamilton Union at Minneapolis. Perhaps it is no place for a minister's daughter, but there she is. . . . Shirley Wynne Jr. has turned fickle, apparently. He has transferred to Gertrude Pershing. . . . Gloria De Bevoise has seen "The Petrified Forest" so many times. . . . One guest, Pat Rooney is settling down. Will run Beau Rivage on Sheephead Bay, opening June 14. He rates plenty of sugary luck. . . .

Tom Weatherly will produce "Pie in the Sky." The author is George Holland, drama critic in Boston. Paramount wants Deems Taylor to score "Peter Ibbotson," but he wants $10,000, which is retarding the deal. . . . Martin Starr is editing a new film mag. . . . Gertrude Ederle, the Channel swimmer and now fashionist, may wed a Government mechanical engineer. . . . They are saying that the Wall Street Democrats, who are sore at the New Dealers, want Owen D. Young to oppose F. D. R. for the nomination, and he is willing. . . . If he does, Al Smith will then support the President actively. . . . What seems like a good story is this fact: One of the captains working in Jack Dempsey's restaurant—once fought him! . . . YOUR GIRL FRIDAY. . . .

JUNGLE GOLD

Steve Heeds a Call to Return and Comfort Hannah, Who Suffers From Fear and Loss of Faith in Him.

CHAPTER TWENTY-SEVEN.

THE rainy season had come again, the lowlands were flooded; swamps steamed; the jungle hummed with winged insects and the hot earth squirmed with crawling things when Dr. Wilkins advised Hannah that the birth of her second child was only a few days off and suggested that she get word to Steve as quickly as possible. The woman refused, for the very necessity of sending for him humiliated her more than she could bear to confess. In spite of his joy at the prospect of a new baby, it seemed that he had forgotten all about it. That hurt dreadfully. He was too careless to measure the march of time and once again he was ready to let her face her crisis alone. Cruel! It was worse than that, Hannah wept. Husband indeed! Steve was a machine, a juggernaut under the wheels of which she had flung herself. No, she would not bend for him. If she died, what difference would it make?

It was Dr. Wilkins who dispatched a runner up country. Rain fell with the peculiar lack of effort which marks this season of the year; it hung in the hot, humid sky and released itself without apparent excuse, like moisture spilled from a canopy of overclouded leaves. Now it pattered in huge drops, again it swept the country in blinding sheets as if the sullen sky dragged its wet robes across the land. Sometimes it drifted for days on end in a penetrating mist, from which there was no escape. It even rained when the hot sun glared down and then, of course, the earth was scalded. Always the humidity was like a weight on the chest and it made breathing a conscious, muscular effort. There was no coolness anywhere; the air was dead and human life stagnated; a mould like the gray beard of an octogenarian formed in sunless places; the mere exertion of living brought a sweat. Hannah, indeed, forgot that she had forgotten everything and everybody in the work he was doing, but Wilkins' message aroused him like an electric shock. He heeded the call as a native answers the throb of a war drum. Within 10 minutes after its receipt he had dropped his work and he was headed eastward. . . .

Again the river was in flood and the trails were impassable, for beasts of burden so he traveled much of the way on foot. He tramped steadily, heedless of the sweltering heat which rose from the sodden ground by day and without fear of the black shapes which moved through the fog of night. Hannah, who never called for help, Hannah who had borne with him all these years and who was brave enough to face the world alone was in need of his strength. He was deeply ashamed of himself. What had come over him lately to forget a thing like this? What a poor excuse he was for a husband. Well, he'd do better. Another son! People would talk about the Pentecost boys. He'd leave enough for two. . . .

LACK night covered Puerto Cortez like a pall when Steve entered the town. Windows were dark, the inhabitants slept nervously and a fretful breath stirred the jungle as though in its depth nature itself lay sick and gasping. Steve didn't like the look of things. Hannah was up and moving about when she heard his tread on the walk and opened the door for him. In his arms her resentment vanished, for the moment, at least. . . .

was when Steve came. I'm a lot older now. Seven years make a difference in a woman and I'm not as strong as I was. This heat! . . . I'm going to die, Steve! Tears stood in the dark eyes and overflowed down the woman's cheeks. . . .

When Steve was born I wanted to show you the kind of woman I was. I'd have gone through fire just to prove to you. . . . But it made no impression, you didn't care. You don't care for anything or anybody. . . .

Now! Now! he said soothingly. Steve was restless, he complained in his sleep and the father longed to snatch him up in his arms and awaken him with kisses. But that would frighten the little fellow. Curses! They had become such strange, strange creatures, the boys. It would have been better, almost, if Hannah had kept him in Tegucigalpa. . . .

Dr. Wilkins sent word that he would be up as soon as possible so Steve and Hannah, who were alone, held her hand until she fell asleep. . . .

A languid breeze crept out of the night and rustled the treetops around the house. Lightning continued to ride the inky clouds over the mountains to the south. Plainly a tempest of more than ordinary proportions was brewing and presumably it would break the hot spell, bring the wet season to a close. Steve hoped so, for Hannah's sake. . . .

That was the devil of a pioneering job like this—it never gave a fellow any time off for himself. It robbed him of the things he held dear. He had certainly neglected Hannah and she felt it deeply. He made a restless tour of the house to see that windows and doors were tight, pausing in the course of it to peep out into the night. The jungle continued to breathe a fevered heat from the swamps flowed seaward. To the south the heavens were so black now that the starless sky overhead seemed light in contrast; on all sides there was a nervous stirring which he could sense rather than hear. Out of somewhere came an aimless gust, then during the lull that followed it his ears caught a faint sound like the far off roar of surf. The rain! It drummed upon the roof of the forest, sweeping forward with the speed of a cavalry charge and sucking all sound, all movement out of its path as it approached. Then the sky opened and spilled itself. (Continued Tomorrow.)

Contradictions Are Numerous In Normal Man

By The Rev. J. F. Newton

JOHN POWYS has written a big book about himself, in which he undresses both body and soul before an open window with the light turned on. It makes us blush, because it shows us ourselves, too. . . .

Every such book, as Bernard Shaw said, must be a lie, because no man can tell the truth about himself, even when he tries to do so. Either he will make himself too good or too bad, and spoil the picture. . . .

To a normal man—if such a being exists—the man Powys describes, so candidly, is a mass of contradictions, a mixture of mysticism and meanness, sentiment and sensuality, dirt, devil and deity. Proud and humble, sceptical and superstitious, idealistic yet empty of morals. Wise in his own way, he calls himself half crazy, compounded of the oldest wisdom and the latest folly. . . .

Full of affection, yet heartless; hating cruelty ferociously, yet he says he is almost a sadist. Idealistic, appetites, virtues, vices, obsessions, manias, attractions, repugnances, aspirations make a medley. . . .

Here is no weakling. Only a strong man can carry such violent baggage for 60 years and not go to pieces, and at 60 is going better, it seems, than ever—facing toward sunset serenely. . . .

How familiar it all is, because it is only a heightened, untouched portrait of each one of us. For we are a queer lot, mixed pickles all of us, good, bad, crazy, cruel, kind and cunning by turns. . . .

In ourselves we can find what is in all men, in some degree, and that ought to help us to know, love, pity and understand our fellow-men. . . .

Maybe all these things ought not to be inside the same skin, but here they are. Our job is to take the raw stuff of life and learn the art of shaping it into some form of beauty after some design. . . .

Else the mixture will be just a muddle and a mess. What we need is a faith, a flash of light, a magnetic spiritual force to unify our inner chaos, turning a caricature of life into character. . . .

Do you know how to turn off the water supply in your house in case a leak should suddenly appear? If you do not, find out how it is done before just such an accident should occur. . . .

TOMORROW'S HOROSCOPE

For Thursday, June 13.
DAY favorable for paying and collecting—but see that you take care of both ends, even if you might otherwise feel richer. In evening hours: Don't fall out of balance leaning on hunches or doubtful schemes. Make it social. . . .

Growth.
Part of the mystery of life is that we are here to learn more. To whatever extent we are less than perfect (and we'd be in another world if we were complete) we fall to express the good. The idea is to grow. This is the grand symbol of the child becoming the man, physically. It shows that mentally and emotionally we must also grow to maturity if we would be happy. . . .

Your Year Ahead.
Your year ahead leads up to a period of reaping occupationally, beginning after March 30. Make your position sound; work hard; be deserving. Make new friends. Danger: Oct. 4-Nov. 22; Feb. 5-March 17, and from June 1. . . .

Stay in the rut; worry won't help—be sensible. (Copyright, 1935.)
